CHAPTER 61

GENTLE LOTTERY

---

To get refreshed after a while, I left the town taking everyone.

Hikari, Nana, Io, and Miu, the four of them.

Hikari was holding my hand, and the three are following from behind.

Recently, the way Hikari held my hand was very cute.

She makes me take out only my pointing finger, and *Gyutto*, she holds it.

It was very cute, it was unbearably cute.

[What a doting parent]

Shut up. You're the one who's bad giving birth to such a cute girl.

"Otou-san, what's that?"

"Un? Ahh, cotton candy huh"

What caught Hikari's eyes was a stall selling cotton candies.

"Cotton candy?"

"Ahh, it's something that is made out of sugar, so it's fluffy and sweet"

"I want to eat it!"

Hikari's eyes sparkled. It's something that children likes after all.

I took Hikari, and approached the stall.

"Do you want some too?"

I turned around, and asked the three.

“I don’t like, sweet things that much.....”

“I want to eat some”

Nana and Io answered promptly.

“E~to, I.....”

Miu was somehow holding back. If she doesn’t want it, she would probably immediately say that she doesn’t want it, so she probably wants to eat some.

“Store owner, give me three of those”

“Coming up”

“Miu, pay the bill”

Miu went in front in a hurry, and paid the bill.

Recently, just like this, I try to not hold a wallet when going out.

Althea said, that it was noble-like to take slaves with me and make them pay.

I received the cotton candy, and handed it to Hikari.

“Waaaa, so sweet~”

“Un!”

“There’s this animal called Rinsing Bear, every time it eats something, it places it into the water to wash it. And when I gave that rinsing bear cotton candy, as I’ve thought, it actually washed it so it melted and disappeared, the rinsing bear makes a really sad face”

“Rinsing bear, how poor.....”

Hikari got disheartened.

I expected a reaction like, “Ahahaha, how weird～”, but she unexpectedly got emotionally involved with the rinsing bear.

Shut up.....I know that.

“But rinsing bear also washes fruits before it eats it, so it doesn’t have a stomach ache, and it’s always healthy you know”

I tried to follow up on it.

“Waa～, rinsing bear is amazing”

“Ahh, it’s amazing”

My follow successes.

Hikari ate the cotton candy. The way that around her mouth got sticky was also cute.

“Uhm, Master”

Miu talked to me.

When I turned around, there was the cotton candy on Miu’s right hand, and there was something like a paper in her left hand.

“This, I asked for it”

“That is?”

“It seems like there’s an event in the town. If we have this, they say that we can draw the lottery”

“He?”

I was dumbfounded.

“We can draw the lots!”

Hikari snatched at that.

After they finished eating the cotton candy, we came to the center of the town with all of us.

There was a tent there, and there was a lottery machine that I was used to seeing in that tent.

I didn’t think that it was really the lottery.

“Otou-san! Let’s draw lots?”

“Ahh”

I took Hikari with me, and went to the tent.

I handed the one lottery ticket we received.

“Yes, one draw it is. Who will draw it”

“Hikari, you want to?”

“Un!”

With a full smile, Hikari put her hand on the handle, and turned it.

*GaraGaraGara*, *Poton*.

What came out was a white ball.

“Too bad, it’s a miss”

It was a miss. Well, with only one chance it would be like this huh.

“.....”

I took Hikari and tried to return where everyone was. Along the way, Hikari stopped, and stared at the tent.

Does she want to draw more.....she probably do.

Even in the lottery before, she had much fun drawing it after all.

“Nana, Io, Miu”

While holding Hikari’s hand, I told the three.

“Go and gather lottery tickets. I don’t care how much it would cost. Buy everything if you see something you want”

“Understood”

“Yes”

“I-I understand”

Nana and Io received money from Miu, and the three scattered.

That lottery can't increase the drawing times a lot. There's finally one piece after using a huge sum, can be drawn once a day, and drawing about 10 times was the limit.

But it's different here, town.....it's a shopping district level lottery, the chances can be increased easily.

After a while, I received the lottery ticket from the three that returned.

“Thank you, Nana”

“As Aruji commands”

“Thank you, Io”

“There was something I wanted to buy, so it's just right on time”

“what did Miu buy?”

“Uhm, meat, vegetables, and——”

“It's very Miu-like huh”

The tickets that the three gathered after shopping here and there, easily exceeded 200.

“Hikari, let's go draw once more. You can draw for about 200 times this time”

“Really! Wa～i”

Together with Hikari, we entered the tent again.

I handed the lottery ticket, and made Hikari draw the lottery.

“Wa～, amazing～”

Hikari turned the handle very happily.

In the middle, she stopped once.

“You can still draw a lot more”

She was said with a smile.

And then, she joyfully drew.

Unlike that lottery, it looks like she’s happy that she can draw as much as she wants.

Most of it’s a miss (participation prize), but she didn’t mind and continued to draw.

[Isn’t the miss too many. Shouldn’t she be able to get something for once in a hundred times]

“Isn’t it fine, Hikari is having very much fun after all”

“Aruji, wouldn’t it be better if we gather more tickets”

“Un, I guess so. Until Hikari gets tired of——”

When I was about to ask to gather lottery tickets again, *GaranGaran*, the hand bell rang.

“Congratulations, first prize, it’s a huge hit”

“Oh!”

Surprisingly, a huge hit came out, on top of that, it’s the first prize.

I approached Hikari.

The lottery person took out the goods from the back, and gave it to Hikari.

“There you go, first prize. It’s the latest Demon Sword replica”

“Wa～, it’s Okaa-san～”

“Does little girl’s Okaa-san have one too? Ahh, it looks like Otou-san have one too. They are being made recently, and it was being sold here and there after all”

The lottery person saw Eleanor in my waist and said. There was somehow, a misunderstanding, but I ignored it.

“However, this is the latest version. Little girl, hold that and put magic powers on it”

“Magic powers? Like this”

Hikari held the Demon Sword replica, and *GuGuGu*, closed her eyes and put powers on it.

How cute.

And then, there was a dark aura coming out of the Demon Sword replica.

“He〜?”

“Just like that, it’s the latest one that releases a dark aura when magic powers are poured on it. Of course, it’s something that is not harmful to humans so use it as much as you want”

Eleanor’s fake was really evolving so much huh.

Hikari held the Demon Sword replica that has aura coming out of it, and asked me.

“Otou-san, is Hikari cool?”

“Master’s usual stance it is”

Miu said. It’s true, it’s the stance that I usually use.

It’s exactly like it, but.....

“Cute”

Rather than cool, it was very cute.

“Eh〜”

[You doting parent]

Say what you want.

Hikari who had a stance with the Demon Sword, it was so cute that I wanted to take a picture and display it.

CHAPTER 62

YUUKI'S SLAVE COLLECTION

---

Afternoon inside the mansion.

Althea who's in her youthful mode, and I who is *MofuMofu*-ing Miu while in sage mode because of my vigor being sucked out.

"Capturing Saria was troublesome. They were soldiers that I'm not familiar, so excluding me, the movements of the soldiers were one tempo late. They even got confused when we warped"

"Ones who are familiar with you should not be mentioned, but it cannot be helped with common soldiers"

"Can't something be done with it?"

I asked Althea. I want the sage's wisdom.

"Are you asking for advice?"

"Yeah"

"You should have elite guards"

Althea who answered promptly said it with a teacher's tone.

It's Althea's way of talking when she is teaching something to me.

While *MofuMofu*-ing Miu, I lend her my ears.

"You should make a corps that you usually know, not soldiers that are lent to you every time something happens, you should create a corps that knows about you"

Althea said that, stood up, and looked outside of the window.

“Around there is your land right”

“Yeah, I somehow bought it”

To use money to get lottery tickets, I have been buying the land around the mansion recently.

It's good that I bought it, but land that honestly, I'm not using, land that I thought that I'd use for crops.

“Build barracks there, and make them live there. When something happens, you only need to bring them with you using warp”

I thought about Althea's advice.

My own corps, my own corps that I own myself.

Somehow, that really sounds good.

I warped to Delfina's merchant company.

Delfina took a glance at me who suddenly appeared in front of her, and continued to write something in the papers at her hand.

Business first, work first, she's a woman like that.

There's a lot of times like this when I come to get her, and it's not the first time she ignored me.

I leaned my back against the wall, and waited for Delfina's hands to be free.

“Anybody”

“Did you call us”

“Process this. If it's finished collecting, send it to Calamba's palace. Urgently”

“I understood”

The man that was called took the papers from Delfina, and immediately left.

As if he had not seen me.

“Welcome. It’s still early for you to pick me up”

Did her work finish for some parts, Delfina talked to me.

“I had something to ask. Rather than that, I heard the name, Calamba?”

“Yes, Calamba and Comotoria. It’s near the end of the war, so I thought I would profit for the last time. These kinds of thing, one can profit best around the end”

“You’re really good at it huh”

As expected of the woman who had named herself one of the richest merchants in the world.

“But, you should do it moderately okay”

If she does it too much, Calamba will, no, Rica might get troubled.

“I only arranged the things needed for their prices”

“There’s no problem then”

“And then, what did you come for?”

“Ahh, actually——”

To Delfina, I talked the things I heard from Althea.

“If that is so, the corps that I had lent you before, do you want to buy it as it is?”

“No, I want to raise them from the start”

Doing that, Althea said that the soldier’s loyalty would be higher.

“You are saying you want to collect a new one huh”

“That’s right. So, I want you to collect slaves. From 200 to 300 of them”

“You are going to make a corps with only slaves”

Delfina got a little bit surprised.

“That’s right”

“I understand. I will bring the list by evening”

“Evening? That’s fast”

“Speed is the basics of business after all”

Delfina smiled pleasantly.

Honestly, it’s a smile that’s a little scary, but it’s reliable.

“And also, I want to make a building where the corps can live in. I have the land around the mansion, so around there”

“I will prepare for it”

“Equipments also. I want ones that stand out in the battlefields. Uniform and standing out”

“I understood”

This much is good huh.

“How much will that be”

“Honestly, it depends on the slaves. Are battle slaves that are trained good”

“No, I want to train them myself so that they can get used to me. As long as they’re healthy, then there’s no problem”

“If that is so, I can sell them cheap. If there are 15000 silver coins then there would be change”

Delfina answered promptly. She probably calculated it inside her head in an instant.

“I’m counting on you then”

“I understood”

My deal with Delfina finished.

“Ah!”

I remembered something important, and before I warped, I said to Delfina.

“All of the slaves should be girls”

“.....I understood”

Delfina’s eyes widened for an instant, but she immediately regained herself and said.
Just like that, I am going to raise my own direct corps.

CHAPTER 63

MAKING THE SLAVES GIVE IN

---

“There are 200 slaves in total, I have collected young and clean ones from all over the lands. As you wished, they are “yet to be trained” so their hearts do not have problems, but there is about 20% of them suffering from malnutrition”

“I only need to make them eat right?”

“Frankly speaking, yes”

Delfina promptly answered.

200 girl slaves who have lined up in the open space twenty meters away from the mansion. I, who is looking at that, and Delfina who is reporting the specifics.

It's the third day since I decided to buy, Delfina collected the slaves that I chose.

As a merchant, she's good as usual.

“Miu”

“Yes!”

“For a while, make them food, make them eat all they want”

“I understood”

“From today's part alright”

“Yes!”

Miu answered quickly, and is it for preparation, she returned to the mansion once.

“Nana”

“Ha!”

This time, I called Nana. Not wearing her usual armor, she answered with a dignified expression while wearing light armor.

“Can I let you handle the training? Make them follow my and your order. The priority of the order is respectively what I said”

“Aruji, next is me”

“That’s right”

“Understood”

Nana nodded slightly, and went towards the slaves.

While looking at them taking about something, I continued to talk to Delfina.

“The place that they are going to live in is under construction. I am making them hurry, but would probably take two weeks”

“Can it be build within two weeks?”

“I will make them”

Delfina declared clearly. It somehow feels like she had some pride or something. I’m sure that she really will make them build it.

“I am making them create the weapons and equipments, this one, it would be ready right away”

“I see. Sorry for troubling you all the way”

“It is business after all”

“Take the payment by yourself. The money is in the treasury, you know it right”

Recently, my assets, especially gold, silver, and treasures had increased, so I made a room called treasury inside the mansion.

I’m leaving all of my money there.

“Can I take it by myself?”

“Yeah. I trust you when It comes to money”

“Thank you very much”

With her usual quiet, and work-like tone, Delfina said.

But looking at her carefully, her lips seems to be a little happy.

“Aruji”

Nana returned.

“What happened”

“Can Aruji cooperate for a while. There are some who have strong will, so I want to start from breaking them”

“I got it”

I nodded, and went towards the slaves with Nana.

I stopped in front of the slaves, and observed them.

As Nana had said, some of them are glaring at me, there are some who had strong will.

“This person is your master, Demon Sword Wielder and Goshaku-sama, Kakeru Yuuki-sama”

Demon Sword Wielder, the slaves clatters with those words. Their looks concentrated to the swords in my waist.....especially the long one.

Even within the slaves, it looks like Eleanor is famous.

“Aruji has all the rights taking your lives. If you want to say something, say it with your own mouth”

When Nana said that, one of the slaves went forward, and said.

“Is it true that we will be released if we defeat you”

I looked at Nana, she nodded with a slightly sour expression.

I see, it became like that huh.

Well, if that’s the case, then there’s no problem at all. There is no, problem at all.

“Ahh, that’s fine”

“Really? You won’t turn back on your words after we win right, or deal with us badly if you get injured”

Who would do that.....no, would someone really do that?

“It’s alright. So, are you the only one who would challenge?”

“I-I will also”

“I’ll also do it!”

“If we aren’t going to be punished, then I will also.....”

One next to the other, they named out themselves.

As a result, there are about ten of them who challenges me.

And, I need to crush their will right.

If that is so, it can’t be helped that I would win.

I thought of something, and pressed both of my feet.

I pressed my feet on the ground, and half of my shoes sunk to the ground.

“Aruji? That is?”

After smiling pleasantly to Nana, I said to the slaves.

“From now on, I won’t move from here. The challenge is simple. You can attack however you want, if you were able to make me move from here, then it's your win"

The slaves buzzes.

It means, I'm looking down on them. It's a strategy that I'll win while looking down on them, and show my strength.

I did an additional thing.

"This is the only weapon that I'd use"

I said that, and drew out Hikari.

Not Eleanor, but Hikari.

For me, both of them are Demon Swords, but in public, it's not.

If you say Demon Sword, it's Eleanor who has been famous for hundreds of years, and the other shorter one is currently in "what is that" situation.

That's why, they should be feeling that I'm looking down on them.

"Uhm.....can we, participate from now?"

More of the slaves started to join.

They probably felt that there's hope if I'm looking down on them that much.

"Yosh, let's do it. Nana, lend them weapons"

"Ha!"

One of the slaves received a weapon from Nana, and checked it carefully.

It's the red-haired girl that stood up from the start.

She challenges me first.

"Haaaa!"

She swung up the long sword, and charged.

She slashed without hesitations. The blade attacks while slashing through the air.

I held Hikari backwards and received it. The sound of the swords clashing echoes.

“Gugugu.....”

She pushes through with her long sword using both of her hands. I pushed her back with one hand, and parried.

She continued to attack.

She attacked with all of her wills.

It's good that she's decisive, but that's all.

After I had made her do what she want for a while, I slapped her wrist after receiving her sword attack, making the long sword fall.

And I stuck Hikari towards her throat.

“Finished, right?”

“Ku.....!”

She felt frustrated. But I defeated her thoroughly that she couldn't say anything back, so she was more frustrated with that.

I received the challenge of the slaves one next to the other. I crushed all of the slaves soldiers that were yet to be trained.

First, they thought that they might normally win, next, they thought that they might win because I would get tired, lastly, they thought that they might win luckily.

The feelings of the ones who challenged me, I dealt with their interesting expressions where I can easily read their feelings.

And while doing all of that, I didn't take a step.

I stuck my feet on the ground, and not moved while rooting on the ground.

“She's the last one right?”

After I had taken care of the last one, I looked at the slaves.

All of them had a dark expression, they had a face that all of their hopes were gone. That's probably good right now——but when I was thinking of that.

“Haaaaaa!”

Fissures flew from my side.

It's not the same up until now, it's a blade slash showing its might. I received it hurriedly with Hikari.....I was forced to take a step.

“Nana?”

“Deyaaaaaa!!”

Drawing her long sword, Nana slashes at me.

Freely slashing attack, slashes that make me remember the time when we first fought. Serious.

It's dangerous looking down at a serious Nana. I took out my feet from the ground, and countered with both of my Demon Swords.

The consecutive slashes echoed, I received and dealt with Nana's attacks.

“You got stronger, compared to before”

“Negligence!”

I received the three consecutive slashes from the side, and parried Nana's long sword with my returning blade.

Her long sword spins up in the air, and finally fell to the ground, deeply sinking its blade.

And, I placed my blade to her throat.

“Match finished, right?”

“Ha!”

Nana’s expression was very carefree.

Even though she suddenly attacked, and easily got defeated, her face was very radiant.

In the first place, her attacks were serious, but there wasn’t a killing intent.

I wonder what was that right now.

“A-Amazing.....”

“That person was also amazing”

“Idiot, it’s an act, an act”

“Aren’t you the one who’s an idiot? Even if those attacks was an act, it’s still ten times better than you”

The slaves buzzed.

Hearing what they were talking about, I somehow understood what Nana wanted to do.

“I’m stronger than you, but Aruji is far more stronger.”

She probably wanted to show that.

“Is there no one else? Someone who would take the challenge”

I looked at the slaves, and asked.

There was no one who challenged. Rather than that, some of them even looked at me with admiring eyes.

For the meantime, this much is good huh.

“Nana, take care of the rest”

“Ha!”

I left the rest to Nana as I've said, and returned to the mansion.

【THE BOOK OF COMOTORIA KINGDOM】

CHAPTER 64

THE “ABSOLUTE” FEELING OF RELIEF

---

Inside the carriage going to the capital of Comotoria, there is Melissa and me, and also Chibi Dragon who was lying down.

“My bad, asking you to come with me”

“U～un, Kakeru is always helping me after all. Besides, if it’s Comotoria, I should be of help”

“I heard from Althea that its a country which the Solon Church has a huge authority, is it true”

“Un. The current king is a devout follower”

“What kind of person is he?”

“A 70-year-old Jii-san is the king huh, then, the age of the prince is quite old right”

It somehow felt strange, imagining a prince who is forty or fifty, I couldn’t help but laugh.

It’s not like there are contradictions with a prince being forty or fifty, but if you say prince, the standard image is a cool and young one so I couldn’t help but laugh.

“The crown prince should be 9 years old this year”

“Fue?!”

[Don’t let out such strange voices]

[Otou-san, how cute]

The Demon Swords pointed that out.

“It’s a 70 years old Jii-san, and the crown prince is his son right? And he is 9 years old”

“Un”

“He’s pretty vigorous, huh”

“It seems like he had a hard time. Also, that was the reason why he was faithful to the Solonism”

“What do you mean?”

When I asked that, Melissa answered.

She said that in the region of Comotoria where late marriages are common, the first child he had was when he was over 30 years old.

The child who was born at that time was a girl, meaning, a princess.

There was no problem with that.

The next child who was born was a girl.

There was still no problem.

The third child born was a girl.

Buzzing sounds started to be heard here and there.

The fourth, the fifth, the sixth, they were girls too.

Seven, eight, nine, ten—until the thirteenth, girls were continuously born.

All of them are children born with miracles, thirteen consecutive children.

“The king is cursed”, there was many rumors like that.

“In fact, he was being possessed by something. That was removed by the great priest of the Solon Church ten years ago, and with that, a boy was finally born”

“It’s like that huh”

A successor was finally born, well, he would really be a follower with that.

But, a successor when he got old huh, I somehow remembered Toyotomi Hideyoshi.

Hideyoshi was also being called a playboy when he was young, but in the late years, he became a tyrant because of the love for his children.

I wonder if that king was alright.

“Myu～?”

Chibi Dragon who was lying down raised her head.

She was tilting her head at first, but she started crying “Myu～, myu～” towards the wall.

[O-chan?]

“Is there something. Stop”

I ordered the coachman, and the carriage stopped.

I went down from the carriage and looked at the direction where Chibi Dragon cried to.

There was nothing there with one glance, but looking carefully, I saw a scene more than a kilometer far away that someone is being attacked.

A knight-like person, was attacking the carriage.

“Eleanor, Hikari, let’s go”

[Umu]

[Un!]

“Melissa, you stay here, Chibi too”

“Did something happen?”

“I’ll explain later”

It looks like its an emergency. I sprinted.

I ran the distance of more than a kilometer without thirty seconds.

The person inside the carriage was already dragged out from the carriage.

It was a 13-14 year old girl, and judging from her clothes, it looks like she’s a lady or a princess.

And the one attacking her had a crest that I had seen——it was knights wearing armor with the crest of the Comotoria Army.

“To betray your master, what a filthy man!”

“This is not a betrayal. It is an order”

“What did you say!”

“Please forgive us. Be prepared!”

The knight slashes down his sword towards the girl without reasoning.

*Gaki—n*! I drew out Eleanor, and get in between them while parrying.

“Who?”

“Who are you!”

A girl being attacked, and the knight attacking. I heard them at the same time, and both of them were surprised.

A girl without arms, and an attacking knight.

I instantly decided, and saved the girl.

After I had cut down all of the knights that were attacking the girl, I said to her.

“Are you okay”

“Yes”

It was a quite courageous girl.

“I am Yuuki Kakeru, you are?”

“I am called Aura • Torideca • Comotoria”

“Comotoria? Don’t tell me you’re a princess?”

“I’m the thirteenth princess. Rather than that, Yuuki Kakeru you say, the Great Sage Althea’s?”

“Yeah, that’s right”

However, the situation seems troublesome.

The thirteenth princess, attacked by the knights wearing armor with the crest of the kingdom.

It really seems troublesome.

I took Aura with me, and returned to the carriage.

I tied up the knights, and left them behind.

“Aura-sama!”

“Saint-sama?”

It looks like the two know each other, and got surprised the instant they faced each other.

I heard about the story, so thinking that there was a high possibility that they know each other, I was not surprised.

“Why is the Saint-sama here?”

“I’m on the way to Krades with Kakeru. Instead, what happened to Aura-sama?”

“I don’t know! Why did that suddenly happen”

“Kakeru?”

“What does she mean”, Melissa asked.

I asked Aura.

“The man earlier, was that man your subordinate?”

“He’s father’s subordinate, a man that can be trusted”

“Clues for the reason that that man would attack you”

“There’s none!”

It seems like Princess Aura was quite irritated. Well, she was almost killed so it can’t be helped.

“.....you have a clue huh”

“Mu?”

I looked at Melissa. Melissa was looking at Aura with an ambiguous expression.

Aura bit her lip, she had the face that she was holding back on something.

Clues——it looks like there was some.

The silence continued for more than five minutes, and from there, Aura heavily said.

“Since last year, my Onee-samas had continuously died from accidents”

“Continuously?”

“Astrea-oneesama, Clora-oneesama, Shima-oneesama, Daphne-oneesama, and Eunice-oneesama. Within just a year since last year, six big sisters had died from accident”

“You saying Onee-sama, means the princesses born 13 consecutive times”

Aura nodded.

“Five people dying from an accident within a year huh. ....it doesn’t look like a coincidence”

“Leda-oneesama and Lena-oneesama died from sickness”

“.....that’s not a coincidence”

It’s too consecutive. If it comes to this much, there could only be the smell of conspiracy.

“Any clues?”

“.....”

She bit her lips again, and didn't say anything.

“Don't tell me”, I thought.

I remembered Toyotomi Hideyoshi who had a successor when he was old.

There's no way, right.

Aura who doesn't say anything, and for her, Melissa said.

“Aura-sama. How about asking this person, asking Kakeru for help?”

“This person?”

Aura looked at me very suspiciously. On the other hand, Melissa looked at me with eyes full of trust.

“That's right. If its Kakeru, he would save whoever it is, and solve the problem”

“Absolutely”, Melissa said strongly.

CHAPTER 65

THE LURKING SHADOWS

---

“Myu～”

Chibi Dragon cried, and looked outside of the carriage.

Thinking “Again?”, I looked outside. And then, this time, bandits who were riding horses came, and surrounded the carriage I’m in.

One, two, three.....there are six of them in total.

Numbers that can’t be called as a threat.

To that, Aura was frightened, Melissa’s face got stiff.

“Leave it to me”

I said only that, and went out of the carriage.

I looked at the bandits who were riding horses.

“What the hell are you”

“Hehehe.....”

One of the men extends out the blade of the spear he was holding to the curtain of the carriage without answering.

He was probably trying to see what’s inside.

I drew Eleanor, and cut that away.

“What the hell are you”

I asked the same thing.

“n～? What is it again, you know”

“Ah～, it’s that right, it’s that”

“Yeah, yeah, that’s right. [Take out your money and leave the women behind]”

The men grin, and said words that were quite common.

They were only lines, it’s not the truth, only words that are said.

“Are you also aiming for Aura’s life”

“If that’s so, what would you do”

The man asked back while grinning.

“For what”

It’s annoying, but I held back and continued asking.

“Hehhe.....I can’t tell you that”

“It’s just, there are plenty of people that would be troubled if that princess is still alive”

“A person of high status, you know”

“Oi, idiot, you’re saying too much”

“Don’t care. After all, we’re going to kill them all”

“Well, that’s true”

“I know right”

The men laughed out at the same time.

They continuously laughed together with a sick face that almost made me wonder what was interesting.

More than this, nothing could be done if I asked them right now.

I placed my hand on Eleanor and Hikari.

[Leave one]

“Un?”

[If the situation changes, they might speak fluently right]

“I guess so”

“O, are you going to try?”

The men readied their weapons with a grinning face.

“I’ll tell you this, we are——”

I raised a dark aura, swung the Demon Sword, cutting off the head of the nearest man.
Fresh blood spurts out like a fountain.

“Too slow. Do it before you say stupid things”

I said that, and looked at the other men.

Their expression changed in an instant, from the expression of messing around to an expression filled with murderous intent and animosity.

But, it’s too late.

All of it is too late.

I left one, and cut off the others.

I made that one lost consciousness, and decided to leisurely interrogate him later.

[Otou-san, what’s that?]

Suddenly, I heard Hikari’s voice echo in my head.

“That?”

[Un, there, that black thing that is flying there]

Black thing?

I looked at the direction where Hikari said.

It was diagonally upwards in the air.

It was true that just like Hikari said, there was a black thing there.

When I focused on it, my eyesight that was increased by 777 times saw it.

“—eyeball?”

The thing that was there, was an eyeball that has wings like a bat.

The eyeball.....it was playing around with the dark aura that I raised.

“What the heck is that”

[Evil Eye. It's a monster that sends the things that it sees to its owner. It normally wouldn't move in the wild, normally, it should be moving by someone's order]

“Monster? Order.....?”

The eyeball monster flew there for a while, but finally, it flew away.

When I interrogated the bandit, he said that they aimed for Aura's life with the order of the king.

Aura who heard that wailed, but I told her about the existence of the eyeball monster.

“Are you using something like that in Comotoria?”

“U~un, there's nothing like that”

“It looks like the circumstances became complicated”

“What do you mean?”

“Monsters are involved. Maybe, the things up until now might be the order of King Comotoria, but it might have been not the true intention of King Comotoria”

“You mean, he’s being controlled?”

Melissa asked.

“Is there the possibility of that?”

“.....un, there is”

Melissa thought for a while, and nodded.

Widening her eyes, Aura was surprised.

A light shone in her eyes.

It was the light of hope that, maybe.

“.....let’s hurry towards Krades”

When I said that, Aura and Melissa nodded strongly.

[If it’s not you, it wouldn’t have noticed that eyeball]

While we were hurrying ahead, Eleanor said that.

Since it became easier to see because of it playing around with the dark aura.....with some meaning, that might be true.

THE MASTERMIND WOMAN

---

Comotoria Kingdom capital, Krades.

With the two of us, Melissa and I came to the palace.

I'm in my usual appearance, with the two Demon Swords Eleanor and Hikari in my waist, and Melissa was in her Solon Church formal dress, she is wearing the saint's vestment.

Guided by a lady of the court, we went to the audience hall.

"It somehow feels gloomy"

I silently said.

The structure itself is as expected as the palace of a kingdom, it was quite splendid. The way its built and its wideness, the decorations are also of a high quality, they all seem to be expensive.

But, gloominess that overwhelms that were floating around.

"It's very different from the last time I came here"

Melissa was also confused.

"Also, it's not only the structure, the people too"

I said, and Melissa nodded.

Even the lady of the court that is guiding us, also the guards that were standing here and there.

For some reason, they all seem gloomy.

“Let’s be careful”

“Yes”

We said with a soft voice, and nodded at each other.

Guided by the lady of the court, we arrived at the audience hall.

We waited there for a while, and from the side of the throne, one old man appeared.

Wearing the king’s clothes and a crown, it was a wrinkly old man.

[Looks as if a zombie]

The mother and daughter Demon Swords’ voice could be heard in my head. Eleanor had a heavy tone, and Hikari, just like she said, feels frightened.

The old man that appeared was the person who had the most gloomiest face in the palace in the ones we met.

He’s not only gloomy, but life couldn’t be felt from him at all. As if a dead person, he had paper-like complexion.

“Forgiven by the heavens, we are very extremely delighted”

“Ohh, ohh. It has been a while, Melissa-sama”

“It is an honor, Your Majesty the King”

The king and Melissa, the two talked with formal greetings.

Melissa’s usual rough way of speaking, with her saint-mode, she looks extremely holy. On the other hand, the king was speaking with a highly tone, he seems to be dying anytime.

“Well, well, who is it there”

“I am Yuuki Kakeru”

“Yuuki Kakeru.....well, what an unusual name”

“He is the one introduced by Althea-sama”

There was a woman’s voice, and she appeared from the side.

A glamorous bewitching woman. The woman had the face with the most life within the people we met in the palace.

But, her eyes were cold. When our eyes met, her eyes was so cold that I almost trembled.

“Uu”

Melissa moaned a little on the side.

“Ohh, Aerine”

“Your Majesty”

The woman called Aerine stood at the king’s side, and held his hand.

An old man who was already over 70, and a beauty on her late twenties.

The two looked like they had “that” kind of relationship.

“And so, Aerine. The Sage-sama you say?”

“Oh what is it, Your Majesty. Did not Althea-sama’s letter come from a while ago. Saying, he wanted one man to have a baron’s title”

“Ohh, that is right, that letter came. I left it to you”

“Yes”

“That means”

The old man looked at me.

“You are Baron Yuuki”

“.....yes”

I nodded. I got confused with the king that was as if he just heard about it right now.

“If Sage-sama says so, it should be one who is qualified. Continue to work hard for our kingdom”

“.....yes”

“Your Majesty. According to rumors, Baron Yuuki is a matchless warrior”

“Ohh, is that so”

“On the other hand, there are ones who say that they are only rumors”

“Oh. Which one is the truth?”

“Since he had come here, for once, what about we test him. Rather than rumors, it would be better to test him”

“How will we test him”

“Is there anyone. Bring Grodo here”

Aerine called guards, and ordered them.

After a while, one man was taken here.

“What.....is that”

Melissa held her breath. She couldn't be blamed.

The man that was obviously not human.

Having height of more than two meters, he was wearing restraint clothes.

He was letting out ominous breath from his mouth—most of all, he didn't have eyes.

Rather than a human, he is a monster without doubt. It was a man like that.

“That is?”

“A death prisoner. He is an evil prisoner who had killed more than a hundred with his bare hands. It is true that he is evil, but his strength is also true, most of all, a man that does not have problem to die. He is best for testing the Baron's strength”

“Ohh, I see”

The king getting convinced.

No, wait a minute, don't get convinced with that, are your eyes full of holes.

“Baron Yuuki, you agree with that right”

Aerine looked at me.

I understood.

This woman is using this, to try and kill me.

At the same time, I was sure.

That eyeball has something to do with Aerine.

“.....yeah, there's no problem”

A fight cannot be avoided.

“Kakeru, is it really okay?”

Melissa was worried about me.

I smiled at her.

“Alright. Anyone, give a weapon to Grodo”

When Aerine ordered that, this time, a weapon was brought in.

It was a nata-like weapon, its length was long.

It was a huge and heavy nata that five guards could barely carry.

That was put in front of Grodo, and one of them removed the restraints.

“Boy, pick up that weapon”

Aerine ordered.....where did the death prisoner thing go.

Grodo picked up that nata, he easily brought it up with one hand.

“Ohh, how strong”

“Kakeru.....!”

The king getting impressed, and Melissa getting worried.

Towards Aerine, I asked.

“That thing, he’s a murderer and a death prisoner right”

“Yes, that is right”

“I see”

Then, there’s no problem.

I drew the Demon Sword, and looked towards Grodo.

The man who only look like a monster however I looked at it, it was sending hostility out.

I don’t hate that.

Inside the palace that is gloomy including the king, this thing that releases “heat”, I don’t hate it that much.

I don’t, but.

“If you’re hold a grudge, hold it to your master”

I drew the two Demon Swords, and made a stance.

“Guooooooooo”

Nata that is swung from above.

I stopped it with Hikari, and broke it with Eleanor.
With the two Demon Swords, Grodo was cut in a cross.

“Ohh”

“Kakeru!”

The king that was simply impressed, and Melissa who got relieved.

“.....”

And, gritting her teeth, Aerine who had the face frustrated to death.
The mastermind, it looks like it was this woman after all.
So, I need to remove this woman then.

DAUGHTER'S MAGIC

---

The audience had ended, and we warped to few kilometers away from the royal capital.

In there, the magic cottage.

The door opened, and Aura and Chibi Dragon came out.

While we were meeting the king, she was staying here.

“Myu〜”

“I’m back, O-chan”

Hikari who changed into her human form hugged Chibi Dragon.

Aura talked to me.

“How was it?”

“.....that woman called Aerine, that’s the mastermind”

“I also think so”

Melissa who is in her saint appearance agreed.

“The queen.....”

Aura faced down, and bit her lips,

She had the face that is very frustrated, but not surprised.

“Did you know it”

“It’s because it is when the queen appeared, that my elder sisters had become gone”

“There’s no doubt about it then”

“Ne～ Kakeru, that woman, she might be a demon(魔族)”

Melissa said, I nodded to agree.

“I also think so. She’s controlling monsters after all, honestly, that Grodo earlier is some kind of monster. If that is so, there’s a high possibility that she herself is a demon”

“Un, also, her eyes”

“Yeah, those weren’t eyes of a human”

“Shouldn’t we just expose that?”

“How? From how it felt earlier, the king was being controlled by her right? There’s no way that he would trust us if we suddenly say[That woman is a monster]”

“I will.....no, even if it’s me, it might be useless”

Melissa regrettably said.

The king is a devout follower, and she herself is a saint.

She probably thought for an instant that it would go well with that.

“There’s a magic called “Expose”, I think that we should just use that”

““Expose”?”

“I see, there was that. Can Aura-sama use that?”

“Yes”

“Then, we might have a chance”

Melissa got convinced. I can’t understand the situation, so I asked.

“Hey, what kind of magic is that “Expose”?”

“Uhhh.....Hikari-chan, can you change to a Demon Sword?”

Melissa thought for a second, and said that to Hikari.

“Un!”

Hikari returned to her Demon Sword form.

Beside Chibi Dragon, she was stabbed into the ground in her Demon Sword form.

“Aura-sama”

“Yes”

Aura approached Hikari. She released light of magic powers from her whole body, and casted the magic.

The light of the magic enveloped Hikari.

Hikari returned to her human form.

And Chibi Dragon who was also beside her was enveloped by magic, and changed into a giant dragon.

It was the appearance of the dragon that I fought before; however, she was not releasing a red light.

“W-What is this”

Aura who didn't know about Chibi Dragon.....Olivia was surprised.

On the other hand, Melissa was not surprised, and says to me.

“It's this kind of magic”

“I see”

If it's like that, it might go well.

Night, in the audience hall.

Taking Aura with me, we warped here.

“T-This place is? What happened?”

“It’s a magic that makes me go into a place I had come before”

“A magic like that exists?!”

Aura got very surprised.

“But, I can’t go to the places I had not come before. From here on, guide me to where Aerine is”

“Un, I got it”

Aura understood the situation, and nodded.

We left the audience hall. We walked carefully through the vacant corridors.

Footsteps could be heard. It was approaching.

“Someone’s coming, what should we do”

Aura panicked.

I warped with her.

We’re in front of the magic cottage outside the capital.

“This place, is earlier’s.....? What happened?”

“Let’s wait for a while”

I said that, and waited for about three minutes.

And with Aura, I warped to the corridor that we were just in earlier.

I could hear the footsteps leaving from behind.

“Let’s go”

I said to Aura with a soft voice.

With Aura as a guide, we moved through the palace.

When we were about to get caught along the way, we warped to the magic cottage, waited for a while, and returned again.

If you have avoided encounters using save and load in a game, it’s like that.

And just like that, we reached the room without meeting anyone.

It was the room with the most splendid door up until now.

“This place is?”

I asked Aura with a soft voice.

“Otouto-sama’s room. Because the queen is either here, or in her own room”

“I see”

I nodded, and pushed the door.

I pushed it carefully, not letting it make a sound.

When space that one person could enter was opened, I slipped inside.

Aura also followed.

Suddenly, a smell was caught by my nose.

It’s a smell that I know. It’s the smell of people having an intercourse.

This smell, in the king’s room, bingo.

“Your Majesty”

I heard a voice. It’s a woman’s voice that I heard before.

I held my breath. *Shii*, I made a gesture towards Aura to be quiet.

“What is it, Aerine”

“Baron Yuuki, he’s dangerous”

“Why? Is he not a courageous splendid young man”

“Had Your Majesty not notice? That man, he is holding Demon Sword Eleanor”

“What?!”

*Ba!*, the sound of a body raising up suddenly could be heard.

“That legendary Demon Sword”

“That is right. I thought that there is no way for a man holding like that normal, so I investigated about him. And then, I had found out a serious problem”

“What is it”

“That man, he is acquainted with Aura-sama”

“—!!”

I felt a presence of someone holding one’s breath on my side. I made a gesture once again to make her quiet.

“What!!”

“It looks like, Aura-sama, she planning on using the Demon Sword’s power, to usurp Comotoria Kingdom. Your Majesty should know it as well, Eleanor, one upon a time, how many kingdoms she had taken, and how many kingdoms she had led to destruction.”

“Umu, that is no doubt a demon’s sword that calls upon destruction”

The king said with a strong tone.

I mean.

[Your infamy, it's quite amazing]

[Are you impressed now]

[Don't get proud, I'm not praising you]

"However, Aura.....why have you put your hands on something like the Demon Sword."

"Other than usurping the throne from the prince, is there any other reason?"

What an accusation.

It's just an accusation, but the king believed that.

"Aura, how dare you"

"Your Majesty, there is no time left. We should execute Aura-sama――no, we should execute Aura right away"

I felt Aura's presence shaking on my side.

When I looked at her, she was trembling with a blue face.

She thought that although her life was being targeted, it was some kind of mistake.

From that, the place where that order was passed down was right in front of her, she couldn't be blamed.

"Wait!"

I couldn't watch that anymore, and raised my voice.

I took a step forward.

"You are.....Baron Yuuki"

After getting dumbfounded for an instant, Aerine shouted.

"You insolent fellow, where do you think this is"

"It's true that its a place a monster should be in right"

When I sarcastically said that, Aerine's face changed a little.

[There's no doubt now]

Eleanor said. I also think so.

"I do not know what you are talking about; however, it is lese-majesty to sneak to His Majesty the King's bedroom——you deserve death penalty"

"Is that so"

I replied without care. Nothing would happen with only words, we're only going through parallel lines.

We need to expose her true form with magic first.

I turned around, and said to Aura.

"Use the magic"

"....."

"Oi, what happened"

Aura was petrified, and wouldn't move.

"Oi!"

[It might've been too much of a shock. She can't be blamed]

Eleanor said that. She can't be blamed, but, it's troublesome for that to happen right now.

"Anyone, is anyone there"

Aerine shouted. Guards entered with flocks.

“Capture that ruffian”

““Ha!”“

The guards replied with synchrony, and turned towards me.

What should I do, what do I need to do.

It can't be helped, let's retreat for now. Let's leave and come again.

When I was about to warp, taking Aura with me to run.

[Wait, Otou-san]

Hikari said that, and turned to her human form.

She turned to her young girl appearance that isn't suitable for the scene.

“Hikari?”

“Leave it to me”

“Leave it to me’ you say, what do you mean?”

Hikari took one step forward, reached out her hand, and used magic.

“Expose”

She casted.

The light of the magic enveloped Aerine.

[I see, she had inherited your ability, on top of that, magic was casted on her]

Eleanor said that, and I regained my senses.

In this world, ones who have the qualifications for it, they would learn the magic if they were hit by it.

Hikari who had gained some of my '777 multiplication ability', had learned "Expose".

Hikari who used that, and Aerine who received it.

Aerine turned to her monster's appearance. To a huge lizard-like monster.

"Sorry for waiting, Otou-san"

Hikari said that, and returned to her Demon Sword form.

Aerine who got surprised being forced back to her monster appearance, and the kinds and guards getting confused.

I readied the two Demon Swords, clad myself with the dark aura, and walked towards Aerine.

It's time for some punishment.

EVIL DOES NOT FLOURISH

---

“Funnnnnnnnn!!”

The lizard roars and flung its tail. It’s a roar that’s unimaginable from the bewitching beauty a moment ago.

I dodged to the side. The tail hits the ground where I standing before.

The ground breaks, the building shakes.

With that power, normal people wouldn’t be unscathed from that.

“Here, here, here!”

*Dogo—n!* *Dogo—n!* , it echoes, consecutive attacks from the tail flew.

I tried to take it.

I received the tail that was flung from above by crossing the two Demon Swords.

Heavy, it felt.

*Mishi*, the ground I’m standing on cracks.

“Quite strong. It’s just like how you look huh”

“Kukuku, you can’t do anything even if you knew that”

“I only need to dodge. It’s nothing if it doesn’t hit”

I said that and dodged the tail. The sure-kill attack of the tail continuously hits the ground.

“Tch, how agile. Then, how about this”

Aerine said that, pulled out her own scales, and scattered them.

The scales transformed mid-air, and changed into a small Aerine.

Small lizard appeared in bulk.

They grabbed my feet, and literally stop me on my feet.

“Your feet stopped, now die!”

“Careful!”

I heard Aura’s scream from behind.

[It’s not that dangerous as she says so]

[Un, it’s Otou-san after all]

I heard the mother and daughter’s conversation inside my head. They talked as if there were no danger at all.

As they said, there’s nothing dangerous, there’s no way there would be.

The tail that was flung down——I received it this time using Hikari.

I stopped it using the shorter Demon Sword.

“What!”

Aerine getting surprised.

“Haaa!!”

A focused slash. I swung Eleanor.

“Guaaaaa!!”

The scream roars. It was a scream that even shakes the building.

Aerine’s tail was cut off from the middle.

Squirming tail that was cut off; a dark aura coming out from the wound.

Aerine hugs her tail, and agonizes.

“R-Ridiculous. For a blade to get through my tough skin”

“Ahh, is your toughness something you’re proud of? I did a bad thing then”

While saying that, I charged, this time, I slashed using Hikari.

The tail that was cut, another attack to cut off rings.

The tail that was like a sliced ham flings in the air, and falls to the ground.

“Guo, uoooooooo.....”

The quality of the scream changed.

The parts coming from pain increased, and it didn’t shake the building anymore.

I stabbed the tail that fell down with Eleanor, threw it into the air, and cut it into pieces.

The meat chunks are scattered.

“You bastarddd”

A voice of hatred. With blood-shot eyes full of hatred, Aerine glares at me.

“Is that all you have?”

“Ku!”

Aerine jumped, jumping back.

The summoned mini lizard that changed from scales came in between us.

They were protecting Aerine.

I cut them off.

One kill, one slash. I cut off all of them, and went towards Aerine.

I chased her down. Aerine lost all the might she had in the start.

Hatred was only there. She looked at me with eyes filled with a hundred percent pure hatred.

[Don't play around, hurry up and take her last breath]

Eleanor scolded me. I guess so.

She's annoying so I'm punishing her, but I probably should kill her now.

I thought of that, and readied Eleanor.

"Ku, kukukukuku"

Aerine suddenly started laughing.

It was sudden; with an expression full of confidence.

"What are you laughing at"

"Kukuku"

Aerine didn't answer; *Pachin*, she snapped her fingers.

A monster eyeball that has wings of a bat appeared.

As if it was a projector, the monster's eyes released light, and showed a video.

What was being shown was a bedroom from somewhere, a middle-aged woman was sleeping on the top of a splendid bed.

Around her, she was being surrounded by mini lizards.

Sounds could also be heard, the mini lizards raised monstrous voices.

"What is that"

"Okaa-sama!"

I heard Aura's scream.

“Okaa-sama? Is that person, your mother”

“Un! Okaa-sama, what are going to do to Okaa-sama?”

“That depends on your attitude”

“A hostage huh”

“I knew that Aura was connected to you, you know, I made planned it from the beginning”

“.....how despicable”

I whispered, and hesitated.

It's easy to kill her just like this.

For me who had fought against the Red Dragon Olivia, this thing's strength is like an insect's.

It's only a hundredth of Olivia.

That's why it's easy to kill her, but if I do that, it's easy to imagine what would happen to Aura's mother.

She's going to be killed for sure.

[What would you do?]

[Otou-san.....]

I wonder. Aura's mother, the place she is in right now, I can't warp there since I had not been there.

A hostage.....it's annoying, but it's effective.

It can't be helped, huh.

But, when I was thinking of that.

【Kakeru!】

I heard a voice from the eyeball monster.

It's a voice that I'm familiar with, it's my woman's voice.

Soon after, Melissa appeared beside Aura's mother.

"Melissa?! Why are you there"

I asked, but a reply that's a little bit off came back.

【If you can hear me, don't worry! I'm here after all】

It looks like it isn't a video call, but is only being sent on one side.

But, I understood the situation.

And, there are no more worries.

I readied the Demon Sword, clad the usual dark aura, and went towards Aerine.

"What are you going to do?"

Aura got surprised.

"You bastard, do you not care about the hostage?"

"Do what you want"

I answered promptly. Aura and Aerine got surprised.

"A bluff, huh.....alright, look at this and regret"

*Pachin*, Aerine snapped her finger.

Across the screen, the lizards attacked Aura's mother.

"Okaa-sama!"

Aura raised her scream. But, I didn't move.

Blood splashes out from Aura's mother——not her, but splashes out from Melissa's body that was beside her.

Immortal Saint Melissa, her powers are to receive damage behalf someone, and immortality.

As long as she's there, Aura's mother would not die. She wouldn't even get injured.

Blood spurts out of Melissa. Her appearance was suitable for the name of a saint, it feels very dignified.

[Make it up to her later]

Eleanor said. Of course, I'm planning to do that.

"W-What does this mean?"

Aerine panicked.

I took a step forward; Aerine flinched.

"Well, well, is that your last card?"

"Ku.....!"

"Is there anything left?"

I said, and narrowed my eyes.

"U-Uwaaaaa!!"

Aerine turned around and runs.

Along the way, she kicked off the king that couldn't understand the situation, and ran.

Of course, I won't let her get away.

Inside the room, I warped in front of her.

“What!”

“Die already”

“Damn it!!!!”

Getting desperate, Aerine attacked.

A slash using Eleanor.

I cut off Aerine’s head.

Shaking her huge body, Aerine collapsed.

Here, and also across the video. The mini lizards returned to scales one next to the other.

Melissa was very dignified even being soaked in blood. Aura’s mother was completely unscathed.

In this side, Aerine’s corpse collapsed, Aura got relieved, and the king started trembling.

CHAPTER 69

CONQUERING THE PRINCESS AND THE DARKNESS AT THE SAME TIME

---

“I am thinking of stepping down from the throne”

The next morning, in the audience hall.

Aura and I were standing below, and the king was sitting on his throne.

The king was very exhausted, he was a wrinkly old man in the first place, but it seems like he had become much older than that; he’s weakened so much that he could die anytime.

“Otou-sama.....”

“I was blinded. To think that I took a monster as a queen, to think that I was controlled by a monster”

The king covered his face with his hands.

“Astrea, Clora, Shima, Daphne, Eunice, Lena, Leda.....”

He called out names, his daughters’ names.

“Ohhhhhhh.....forgive me, forgive me.....”

He wailed while covering his face, repenting to the daughters that no longer exist.

“Onee-sama.....”

Aura who was by my side also cried.

Honestly, I'm troubled. I don't know what face to make. I can't laugh or smile right.

I could only stay quiet.

Stay quiet and look at them, waiting for the two to calm down.

Aura returned earlier.

"Otou-sama, this kingdom still needs Otou-sama. Please continue, please continue to lead us, lead the people"

"The sin of dragging a monster within us.....is heavy. It cannot be forgiven other than stepping down the throne"

"Otou-sama"

"And there, the next king.....is.....uhh....."

The king stutters, he took glances at Aura, it seems like he's hesitating about something.

He had said it clearly when leaving his throne, what is he hesitating after all this time?

[He probably can't say that his son would be the next king?]

Eleanor said. I see, that's how it is huh.

The reason why he killed his daughters while being controlled by Aerine is to make his son the king; after regaining his senses, it's probably hard for him to say that his son is the next king.

[That obsession and the his weak heart was probably the reason he was controlled]

That's probably right. I also think so.

The king stutters. Later than Eleanor, Aura also noticed that.

Aura kneels, and said while bowing her head.

“The crown prince should be the next king. Aura Torideca Comotoria, as weak as I am, I am willing to support the new king as a vassal”

With a formal tone, she said what the king wants.

The king clearly got relieved, and his expression got bright.

[That’s why he got taken in]

Eleanor didn’t have mercy.

I also.....agree with her pretty much.

I was invited to Aura’s house.

It’s a splendid mansion that stands in the most lively place in the royal capital Krades. It’s several times more luxurious than my mansion, ‘as expected of a princess’ I thought.

Welcomed by many butlers and maids, I was passed through to the drawing room.

After waiting for a while, Aura appeared.

Her appearance right now, wearing a princess dress, is the most beautiful that I have seen her.

Aura straightens her back, and walks gracefully towards me.

She stood in front of me, stares, and bows her head.

“Thank you very much. All of it, is thanks to you”

“Yeah, be grateful”

“Yes, thank you very much”

Aura bowed her head again once, and said to me.

“I have talked to Otou-sama. You are now a viscount.....one rank above baron”

“I see”

“Also, the land that bestowed before, he says that you will be given a vast land more than that”

“Land? Ahh, there was something like that right”

I remembered Comotoria’s messenger that came to my mansion.

If I’m correct, at that time, that man told me that he’d give me a land other than the baron title.

I didn’t have interest with that, so I had forgotten up until now.

“Is it vast?”

“Yes. It seems like your noble rank could not be raised immediately, so the land was increased”

“Fu～n. That, it’s troublesome, so you manage it”

“Eh?”

“I don’t have that much interest in lands or territories. Honestly, noble ranks too”

“N-No way.....”

Aura’s expression breaks off.

She had a princess-like refined face when she entered the room, but now, she was almost crying.

“I cannot give my gratitude back then. Is there anything.....is there anything else you want?”

With a face that is about to cry, she asked me as if to beg.

“You”

I answered immediately.

From the start, I was only planning to request that.

Aura got dumbfounded.

“Me.....?”

“Yeah, you”

“Me, you say, what do you——ah!”

She was a little bit late to understand, but Aura realized.

The way her face blushes, it's no doubt that she understood correctly.

“That's right, let me embrace you”

“Do not joke with me, rather than the viscount title, rather than land”

“I'm not joking. You're a good woman, a good woman is good enough for a reward”

“.....are you saying that seriously”

“I'm serious”

I immediately answered again.

Aura's blushed face reddens.

She blushed, and got restless.

It's a little bit vexing. It's not like she doesn't like it, so I carried Aura like you carry a princess.

“Where's the room that has a bed”

“Eh, eh??”

“Where is it”

“Uhhh, you go left there”

“Yosh”

While holding Aura, I walked imposingly.

When we went outside, we encountered servants there.

The butlers and maids, they looked at me with a surprised face.

Aura covered her face with her hands. It seems like she's too embarrassed that she would die.

"Uhhh....."

"What, even if you say it now that you don't——"

"From the time that you saved me, I have loved you"

Aura said with a voice as small as a mosquito's cry. The way she said that while covering her face was so dangerously cute.

I took Aura to the room that has a bed on it, and 'took' her as a reward.

Within the darkness, small lizard monsters squirms.

The lizards gathered at one point.

With that dark haze as a point, as if a black hole was there.

The child lizards came and jump into that, came and jump into that, repeatedly.

After that, the black hole gradually got bigger; it got bigger every time child lizards jumped into it.

Repeating that, for one whole day.

The black haze finally materializes, and broke just like an egg.

"Kuhooaa!"

A lizard came out from the inside.

The thing that came out of the broken egg was Aerine in her lizard form. However, her appearance was small, just the size of a child.

Aerine's face was full of hatred.

“That man.....I won’t forgive him, I will never forgive him!”

The words she spits out, they were also filled with hatred.

“I will torture him, torture the ones around him.....I will kill him slowly that he would regret he was alive!!”

With blood-shot eyes, a strong will could be felt with her declaration that she would do anything so that it can be done.

“.....”

One man appeared without sounds.

Wearing a black outfit, a man that has an appearance of an assassin.

“You, you came at the right time”

It looks like Aerine and the man know each other.

It’s not like her hatred had completely disappeared, but it lessened when she saw the man.

“Take me back with you, when I regained my strength, that man——”

Without waiting for Aerine finish talking, the man pierces out his hand.

He pierces her fiercely with the track of a body blow.

His hand pierced through Aerine’s body. His hand that was coated in blood had sharp nails; it didn’t look like a human’s.

“Kaha!.....W-Why”

“You didn’t seem like you’d lose your hatred, you know”

The man said with a merciless tone.

“The who cannot be controlled would be destroyed”

“Even so.....I.....”

“My bad”

The man used his remaining hand and pierced through Aerine, and tears her into two. Aerine who had just regenerated had been torn into two, and this time for real, she died.

The man only took a glance at her, and looked at the other side as if he had lost his interest.

“To treat Aerine as a child like this, stronger than expected”

Unlike his words before, a bit of weakness could be felt with his words.

“We are stronger than anybody else. He probably cannot be stopped with one on one anymore”

He whispered, and let out a sigh this time.

“The man who subordinates the Demon Sword.....the man who gives birth to a new Demon Sword. I must make everyone thoroughly not get involved with him”

Saying that, the man disappeared into the darkness.

In a place where Kakeru is not present, the darkness, it changed its movement greatly.

CHAPTER 70

THE WALL OF PROBABILITY

---

Afternoon inside the living room, I am sitting facing Delfina, and Hikari is looking at us while hugging Chibi Dragon.

“You know that I got a land in Comotoria?”

“Yes, that your land also increased again”

“As expected of Delfina, your ears are fast”

“Information is the basis of business desu wa”

“That land, I’ll leave that to you”

“Ara”

The back of Delfina’s eyes shined.

As if they were eyes of a predator, when it is looking at its prey.

“Will you leave it to me?”

“Yeah, I’ll leave it all to you”

“The taxes too?”

“I’ll give you all authority”

“To be sure, I will ask this; does Yuuki-sama know how much land you have”

“I don’t know”

Delfina laughed. It’s a laugh that was saying, “what a guy that couldn’t be helped with”, and not sure if she was amazed or what.

“If so——”

“Whatever it is, I’ll leave it to you”

“Eh?”

Delfina got surprised. She made a face that was caught by surprise.

“Whatever it is, huh”

“Ahh, I’ll leave everything to you. Manage it well. Also, if it has profits, I’ll give it all to you”

“Eh?”

Delfina got more and more surprised. She was surprised that can’t be compared from earlier.

“W-What are you plotting? Doing that, Yuuki-sama will not get——”

“My woman would become stronger”

I interrupted Delfina’s question.

“Is there a greater gain than that?”

“.....you, you are always like this”

Delfina sulked a little bit.

Her face when she sulks was cute, but I should leave that during the night.

“Would you do it?”

“I will do it. I won’t let you say anything if you regret later on”

“What would I regret”

“About me, you did not forget about your promise that you are going to buy me right”

I got glared at intently. What, about that huh.

“I haven’t forgotten, about that. Also including that. Become a woman than cannot be bought by anyone in this world other than me”

“.....I understood”

Saying that, Delfina left the room.

When she was leaving, there was a smile on her lips.

Well, I can leave something like the lands or territories to her.

“Otou-san”

Hikari came to me while hugging Chibi Dragon.

She was smiling, and walked with a trot.

She was so lovely I can’t help it.

“What is it~, Hikari”

“Uhhh, Otou-san, are you free right now?”

“Yeah, I’m free——”

*KonKon*, there was a knock.

The word “Ah!” came out of Hikari’s mouth.

“Who is it”

“It is Nana”

“Enter”

The door opened, and Nana entered.

She appeared in her usual armor attire, having her long sword dangling from her waist.

Unlike Delfina, Nana started talking while standing in front of me.

“Is your time free right now”

“.....yeah”

I took a glance at Hikari. While hugging Chibi Dragon, Hikari went back to where she was standing before with cute steps.

“I should make it up to her later”, I thought of that, and looked towards Nana.

“What happened”

“I have come to report about the training of the slave soldiers”

“Ahh”

“14 of them are injured in yesterday’s mock battle, and one of them would only be completely healed after a month. I think that training would be bad for a while”

“What about the training itself?”

“It is going as planned. If Aruji led them, they would be able to fight against enemies with the same numbers”

It means they’re still not that much huh.

The number of slave soldiers right now is 200; if they would be able to fight against 200 with me in the vanguard, they’re still too bad.

“Please continue to do it”

“Ha!”

“Ahh, also”

I opened my different dimension warehouse. I took out one white magic ball from there.

“Use this on the heavy wounded one. She would be healed in an instant”

“I understand”

Nana received the magic ball, and left the room.

“Otou-san”

Once again, Hikari came.

She stood in front of me, looked at the door for an instant, then started talking.

“Uhhh, recently, we haven’t drawn lots right”

“Ahh, come to think of it”

“When are we going?”

It’s not like I purposely didn’t go there. It’s just that I go there alone everyday to gain the login bonus.

It’s just, I didn’t go there with Hikari to draw lots.

I see, she wanted to go there so she was waiting for the chance huh.

“Yosh, let’s go today”

“Really?”

A smile bloomed on Hikari’s face.

Hikari who is on her very lovely age, she let me see the most cutest smile in the world. And then, *KonKon*, there was a knock.

Hikari obviously made a disappointed face, and Miu entered from the opened door.

“Master, messengers from the Calamba Kingdom came. They are saying that they are the Queen’s envoy”

“Envoy, Rica’s huh”

Hikari made a sad, but a mature face that listens properly, and tried to return to where she was before.

“Hikari, wait a minute”

“Otouto-san?”

“Miu. Make them wait”

“Y-Yes, I understood”

Miu left the room. I could hear her hurried footsteps going away.

“Otouto-san?”

“Let’s go”

I took Hikari’s hand, and smiled at her.

“Un!”

And, started walking. Invoking that I want to go to the lottery place, we took a step together.

The scene changed in an instant, and we came to the lottery place.

Just exactly, I saw the man before going out.

The man who came to the same world that got tentacles skill after drawing lots the same time I did.

Because of always having a lot of lottery tickets, the man that left quite an impression on me.

“Welcome～”

The lottery place staff welcomed us with her usual smile.

Me, Hikari, and Eleanor.

Eleanor who for some reason changes to her human form here; Hikari immediately clings to her.

I asked the staff.

“The guy earlier, what was his results?”

“Well, quite decent. He brought about 120 lottery tickets, and hit rewards quite decently”

“120 tickets! He’s so crazy as usual huh, that person”

“He’s always amazing”

“In my case, it’s this”

I took out the lottery tickets. After collecting slave soldiers and some things; the 20 lottery tickets that I got from using money.

And then, I noticed something.

Behind the staff, the lottery prize list has changed.

I stared at that intently.

- Participation Prize Magic Ball(White)
- Fifth Prize Magic Ball(Black)
- Fourth Prize Additional Attack 1% 3 Times
- Third Prize Additional Attack 3% 3 Times

- Second Prize Additional Attack 10% 3 Times
- First Prize Additional Attack 100% not included in the 3 times

The prizes had changed a lot. Similar things were lined up.

This pattern, I feel like I saw it before.

I stared at the staff, and asked.

“The prizes changed huh”

“Yes. Recently, a new king reigns the Comotoria Kingdom. Because of that, the national affairs of Comotoria have been normalized. A huge event had happened, so as the memorial for that, there is this limited lottery”

As I’ve thought, it’s like that huh.

It’s the same with the ability lending before.

It’s the same pattern when the paper money was introduced by Mercouri; since the king of Comotoria changed, they did a limited lottery to commemorate that. It’s the same.

By the way, looking at the prizes carefully, the position of the black and white magic balls changed, I wonder if this is also limited.

“And, you would not believe this, right now, from the second to the fourth prize, they have three times probability to come out!”

“There is nothing for the first prize! It is the first prize for a reason”

“I see now”

I nodded, and gave the lottery tickets to the staff.

“Yes, with 20 tickets, it is 22 times. Who will draw it?”

“Who?”

I turned around, and asked Eleanor and Hikari.

“Together!”

Hikari thought for a moment, and said while clinging to Eleanor.

“It can’t be helped huh”

The two stood together in front of the lottery machine, stepped on the stepping stand that the staff prepared, and held the handle of the lottery machine.

“One-two”

They turned the lottery machine.

*GaraGaraGara*, *Poton*.

White, white, white, black, white, black――.

Most of them are misses, and fifth prize comes out sometimes.

I didn’t care for the usual lottery.

I looked at the prizes list, and imagined their effects.

I could somehow imagine them; I want to gain one of them, and try to test it.

I thought, “Can’t the fourth prize come out”.

The 22nd time, the last ball.

A golden ball came out.

The hand bell rings, *Garan*, *Garan*, the sound echoes in the room.

“Congratulations! It’s the first prize!”

“.....eh?”

I got surprised.

I looked at the prizes list. The words '3 times, not targeted' was dancing quite largely. Surprisingly, the first prize surpassed the wall of probability.

CHAPTER 71

HERO

---

We left the lottery place, and came to my property on the side my mansion.

There, Nana is training the 200 slave soldiers.

Following Nana's commands, they had uniformed movements.

Compared to before, they really seem like it decently. With this, I could probably take them to a battlefield in the near future.

Well, I didn't come for that reason today though.

"Nana"

"Aruji, is it. What happened"

"I want to test something, come with me for a bit"

"Understood"

Nana answered immediately.

Ordering the slave soldiers to take a break in their place, she drew her longsword and faced me.

I like this part of Nana.

The part when I only said "I want to test something", but she immediately knew that it's about fighting.

I drew Eleanor; Hikari is also on my waist, but to test, it should be with Eleanor first.

I used the 【Additional Attack 100%】 that was drawn in the lottery place.

According to the staff's explanation, it's not a weapon or an equipment, but something that is used on humans.

"Let's go"

"Ha!"

I swung Eleanor from above, and collides with Nana's long sword.
The sound of clashing echoes, and sparks flew.
While guarding with her sword, Nana took a step back.
She blocked the attack; it was the same up until there.

The strange change happened in the next instant.

——Kiiin!

Similar sword sounds came out once again. A completely different sound when her long sword collides with Eleanor.

Za! Za! Za!

Did she relaxed after blocking the attack, Nana took three steps backwards with the impact.

I could see the surprise on her face.

“Aruji, right now”

“It's the thing that I wanted to test. Let's do some more”

“Ha!”

Nana's face became serious.

Surprise within an instant, and understanding is also within an instant.

And, adjusting is also within an instant.

I continuously attacked, Nana received continuously. She understood that there was an additional attack after the attack, and adjusted according to that.

I slashed, and Nana blocked.

I figured out the effects of[Additional Attack 100%]pretty much.

After about a second after attacking, an attack that was completely the same would appear.

If it's a slash, a slash that has the same strength would appear in the place where the slash hits after a second.

“Next is Hikari. Block it”

“Ha!”

Exchanging with Eleanor, this time, I attacked using Hikari.

It was also the same with Hikari. As I’ve thought, the additional attack appears after one second.

I withdrew Hikari.

“With magic, let’s go!”

“Ha!”

I used the flame magic that I remembered from getting hit by Almosso, and ball of flames flew towards Nana.

Nana swung her long sword, and slashes off the ball of flames.

The ball of flames that was slashed splits open. A second after that, the same ball of flames appeared, but it was also split open.

I lowered my hand, and stopped.

“Yosh, this much is enough”

“Understood”

“I figured it out pretty much. Thanks, Nana. If it wasn’t you, I wouldn’t have been able to test this much”

“Thankful words”

“I disturbed you. Continue the training”

“Ha!”

Being sent out by Nana who lowered her head a little, I left that place.

I thought while walking.

[Additional Attacks 100%], when I saw its name at first, I thought that I would simply double my strength, but when I actually used it, its effects were more than I expected. If attacks that were completely the same would appear after a second, using it with tactics, the strength added is more than twice.

It's simple. While the additional attacks appear, it means that I could take a breath while attacking continuously.

The fire power is doubled, but the things I could do increased.

It was like that.

".....additional attacks appeared?"

I stopped on my feet; it's because a thought was born in my head.

"Does "that".....can also be added?"

Inside the bedroom at night, Melissa was moaning under my body.

While attacking Melissa who was naked, I asked persistently.

"How is it, Melissa, how is it?"

"I-I don't know, I don't know, it's weird"

"What's weird"

"It's weird, I don't know, but is strangeee"

Half-frenzied, Melissa says out "weird".

I could feel "vibrations" from her body that I entangled.

It were the same when I swung a sword.

There's also 【Additional Attacks 100%】 with the movements of my hips.

Double impacts attacks Melissa, making her "weird", "I don't know".

An answer didn't come back, but I understood it with experience.

After two hours, Melissa was drenched and exhausted.

She was spent on top of the bed.

It's only two hours.

Melissa has the nickname of Immortal Saint; a woman whose endurance and recovery are ridiculous.

In short, she wouldn't die.

When I dropped her before, it took a whole day.

This time, it only took me two hours.

Probably, this kind of use wasn't expected, but.....[Additional Attacks 100%], how scary.

I wonder if there's also other things that[Additional Attacks 100%]can be used with.

I should organize my ideas, and try them one by one.

While I was thinking of that, Melissa draws her body to me.

She's exhausted and pretty much couldn't move, but she crawled on top of the bed and drew her body to me somehow.

The remaining fire of her body feels good.

"Kakeru....."

"Yeah. Is your body alright"

"I'll recover soon, so wait for a while"

There's no power in her words, it even feels that her voice was coarse.

Even so, Melissa says defiantly, it looks like she's really trying to recover soon, and tries to be my company.

“You, you’re really cute”

“W-What is it suddenly”

Melissa blushed. I thought of her cute more and more.

“But, don’t force yourself. You don’t need to do that much”

“But.....”

“It’s alright. If I really want to do more, I’d do this”

I opened my different dimension warehouse, took out a white magic ball, and used it to Melissa.

It’s a prize from lottery; a magic item that has the effects of complete recovery.

The magic ball shines and melts, enveloping Melissa’s body.

“Wa! My body——my stamina in an instant?!”

Melissa got surprised, and at the same time, the strength came back in her voice.

The magic ball completely recovered her stamina.

“The reason that I didn’t do this, it’s because of that”

“I see.....un, I got it”

Melissa draws her body to me nearer, but this time, she said as if to whisper to me.

“Ne~, Kakeru, it’s still night huh”

“Yeah, it’s night”

“It’s not that a day passed, and it’s night again, right”

“Haha”

I remembered what happened before and laughed.

It took a whole day before.

“It’s really still night time normally”

“Ufufu”

Melissa laughed happily for some reason.

She brought her body nearer to me while naked, and brushes her cheeks to me happily.

“What happened”

“I’m happy”

“I know that, but why?”

“Right now, you know, the time that I was downed, isn’t it the same with normal couples right?”

“Well, pretty much.”

“I’m happy with that. I, if it’s with Kakeru, I can become a normal girl. I thought, that it’s good being a normal girl”

“That’s why you’re happy, huh”

“Un”

“I don’t get it”

I thought like that, but Melissa seemed happy so, whatever.

“U～n”

Melissa groaned, she made a difficult face.

“What happened”

“I’m searching for a word to describe Kakeru now”

“A word to describe me?”

“Un! Undefeatable in battlefields, solving various huge incidents, have countless women. There's a word that describes that kind of man, but I couldn't think of it, it's on the tip of my tongue"

"Ahh, there are times like that huh, word that are stuck in the throat"

Melissa thought while groaning and tilting her head.

After a while, she remembered with a face full of smile.

"It's hero!"

Hero.

The Immortal Saint that people admire, said that I'm a hero.

PATIENT MUSOU

---

“Geho! Geho, geho!”

On the top of the bed, I coughed vigorously.

I feel cold even though it's hot, my head hurts and my throat is dry, and my nose is clogged up and I can only breathe through my mouth.

It's like the cold's full force attacked at once.

“This is.....”

The doctor on my side was making a difficult face.

The doctor that Miu called the instant she knew I caught a cold.

“H-How is it, Sensei”

“It is Euboi Cold, get absolute rest for a while, get warm and take nutrients properly”

“Absolute rest.....is it alright with that”

“It is rare to die from Euboi Cold, however, when you catch it, your endurance would fall drastically, and you might catch a different disease with that. That is why, he should have a complete rest”

“I understood”

After the check up, the doctor left my room, and Miu went out together to send him out.

[To catch a cold, how pathetic]

Eleanor's voice echoed in my head.

“Shut up.....anyone can catch a cold”

[What about the magic balls? Can't you heal using that]

“That—geho, geho!—I gave all of them to Nana. There was a lot who were wounded in the hard training after all”

That's right, I'll out of white magic balls right now.

Eleanor who heard that got silent.

I don't know why she got suddenly silent, but my head is hurting, so I'm thankful that she is quiet.

[.....if I only have a body]

“Did you same something?”

Although it's inside my head, I heard a whispering voice.

[It's nothing. Anyways, go rest. ....I-If Hikari catches a cold from you I'll possess you and kill you]

“Okay, okay”

I replied half-heartedly and sunk deeply into my bed.

She doesn't need to say that, I won't let Hikari catch something from me.

Something like this, I can recover it with my will.

“Master.....”

Miu timidly entered the room.

“What is it.....”

“E~to.....uhmm.....”

Miu was stuttering. Did something happen.

“Uhhh.....it’s a hard time for Master right now, but there was a message from Helen-sama’s messenger”

“A message? Say it”

“Yes. “Paper notes are made, so I will escort the transport team to Roizen.” desu”

“He~, paper notes are.....wait a minute!”

I stood up from the bed abruptly, but I was so feeling so weak that I fell to my side. I fell on top of the bed, and Miu approached me worryingly.

“Are you alright, Master”

“Get me clothes.....ones for going out”

“Ehhhhh??”

“Let’s go.....Eleanor”

[Go rest! I mean, where do would you go]

“No, I need to go”

My vision is hurting, and my head feels dizzy.

Even so, I know, I clearly know it.

“Escorting money.....there’s no way they wouldn’t get attacked”

While staggering, I let Miu change my clothes, and I grabbed Eleanor.

I used the warp feather.

I had passed through the road from the capital to Roizen once, so I can warp anywhere there.

Along the way, I warped a kilometer each time to not pass by the transport team.

After warping tens of times, I finally saw Helen’s transport team.

I warped next to Helen who’s sending commands.

“Kakeru-sama! Why are you in this——Kakeru-sama?”

She got surprised to my appearance first, and in the next second, Helen noticed my condition and got surprised.

“What happened, Kakeru-sama, you’re so hot.....”

I’m feeling dizzy though.

“I-If so, you need to rest. Why are you here?”

“That’s my line”

I looked around. Some of the soldiers that noticed me got surprised.

I ignored them, and asked the number of soldiers.

“How many are there?”

“Eh?”

“How much paper notes are there”

“In silver coins, there are five hundred coins”

“How many soldiers did you bring to transport that”

“That is.....it is within the kingdom, so a hundred——”

“.....it’s good that I came”

“Eh?”

“Uhh, you know, you’re transporting money right. Paper notes that would be officially circulating around next month. Isn’t a hundred guards too few for that?”

“That is.....no, within the kingdom, that will”

“E-Enemy attack!”

A panicking voice from the soldiers in the front could be heard.

Immediately after, sounds of swords clashing, and the sounds of magic being shot could be heard.

They’re pretty much getting pushed, and the battle situation is clearly not good.

“.....I told you”

“Uu”

Helen’s face got blue. I held Eleanor and stood up.

“Kakeru-sama?!”

“I’ll do something about it”

“B-But your body”

“Something like this――geho geho!”

Because I stood up quickly, I coughed vigorously.

I waited until my cough goes away, and said to Helen.

“Compared to this hundred, geho, geho! I’m more useful”

I said that, drew Eleanor and jumped into the front lines.

My head was so dizzy, I don’t know what happened from there.

I can’t remember anything other than exterminating all of the ones who attacked.

CHAPTER 73

ONE WHO EXCEEDS A-RANK

---

Morning, Io who got up from bed prepared herself at a slow pace.
She wore her clothes, wore her witch's hat, and held her magic wand.
Her appearance when she's stripped naked is beautiful, but this is also not bad.
Looking at her, I noticed that she was preparing to go out.

"Are you going out?"

"Un, I have a quest that I took in the guild for today, so I'm going out for that"

"Guild huh. Come to think of it, you, you were going out for that frequently right"

"Un"

"....."

I thought for a while.

Io who goes out for a quest from the guild.

I got curious of that.

"Yosh, I'll also go"

"Really?"

Io's eyes sparkled.

"Good morning! Ane-san"

"Onee-sama, please take care of us today okay"

When we arrived in front of the guild, two girls ran towards Io.

The ponytail swordsman-like girl that has a lot of skin exposure called Io “Ane-san”, and the girl who seems a little gentle wearing Solon Church’s clerical dress called her “Onee-sama”.

.....Ane-san and Onee-sama??

“Good morning. Let’s do our best today too”

“Yes! If Ane-san’s with us, we’re invincible!”

“Let’s look down on Alexis’s party today too okay”

“Julia, I’m always saying this right, you shouldn’t say something like that. Alexis-san is a more experienced senpai in the guild you know”

“Yes.....”

The clerical clothed girl——Julia, got dispirited.

“But, Ane-san, the guild’s rank is only up to A so Ane-san is equal to them, but looking at achievement, I think that Ane-san had surpassed Alexis’s party a long time ago”

“Even so, Agnes. Senpai is a senpai, you need to respect them”

And, the swordsman’s called Agnes huh.

“The two of you, you got it?”

“Yes.....”

“I understood, Onee-sama”

The two who was scolded(?) by Io was not dispirited, but rather, they looked at Io with a spellbound expression.

“As I’ve thought, Onee-sama’s so cool”

“Well yeah, it’s Ane-san after all!”

She's even being worshiped with reasons that can't be understood.

I mean, with this instant right now, I had a lot of questions.

"Oh, the two of you, I'll introduce him okay. He's Kakeru-san who's going to come with us today"

Io looked at me, and introduced me to the two.

In an instant, the two made a frowning face.

Uwa~, they're too blatant.

The two made a face "Where the heck did this guy come from".

It's somehow interesting now.

"It's Yuuki Kakeru, nice to meet you"

"....."

"....."

The two glared at me. And there were no greetings either.

"Agnes? Julia?"

"I do not know where you came from, but"

"I'll kill you if you drag down Ane-san"

"Ahh, I got it. I won't be a burden"

And the four of us departed.

Io came to my side stealthily, and said with a small voice.

"I'm sorry, Kakeru-san. The two did a very rude thing"

"No, don't mind it. Rather than that, you, you became A rank huh"

"Un.....I did"

"A rank is the highest rank right"

I remembered their conversation earlier. From how Agnes and Julia spoke, that seems so.

“Un, it’s the highest one”

“I see, that’s amazing”

“No, not at all”

“You did your best huh. As expected of my woman”

“— —un!”

When I praised her, Io got very happy.

After that, she got called by Agnes and Julia and went towards them.

I thought while following the three’s back.

I thought that I’d fight with them together, but rather than that, I’d rather look and see first.

Io, Agnes, and Julia’s party were quite a balanced party.

[That girl called Agnes, she’s a good swordsman huh. She’s not normal being able to swing around that large sword with that thin body]

“Yeah”

[That Julia on the other hand, she’s looking at how the battle progresses well. The timing of her recovery magic and support magic is perfect]

“Ahh. Most of all, it’s Io, her lightning magic, it’s power and number of times she can shoot it has increased a lot compared to when she just met me”

[That’s true. With that, it’s agreeable that she’s an A ranker]

“Physical, magic, recovery. Their party is balanced in a high level”

[They’re a perfect hundred as adventurers]

While the three were fighting, I'm evaluating them with Eleanor from the back.

While folding my arms, I followed the three.

The quest from the guild is monster subjugation.

It's a quest to "clean up" the place where high leveled monsters appear regularly.

From how I look, the monsters that are many times stronger than mountain cows were being defeated by the three as if they're small fries.

They had a lot of ways of how they defeated them, but the most frequent pattern was Agnes stopping the monsters at bay, Io defeating them with magic, and Julia would cast her recovery magic.

That would happen about fifty percent.....it shows how much the two trusts Io.

They defeat the monsters, and find the next one.

Agnes and Julia whispered at each other without letting Io know.

"Julia, what the heck is that man"

"That's true. He's just making a smug face and follows us, he won't even fight"

"He seems like a swordsman, but, that's the Demon Sword's replica right"

"To think that someone would hold something like that as if he's proud of it. Onee-sama, I wonder why she'd take a man like that with us"

The two intended to whisper to themselves, but I could completely hear them.

Ears amplified 777 times is good after all.

Io who's near me couldn't hear it, but I could hear all of it.

"You're a fake they said"

[I'm already used to it]

Eleanor in my consciousness snorted.

We advanced again, and I felt an intimidating air that can't be compared up to now.

A goat's head, a human's body, black wings, and holds a huge scythe.

Its size is not different from a human, but it's full of intimidating air and presence.

"It came out! Julia, I'll count on you!"

"Un, Onee-sama, while we're at it"

Julia casted support magic, and Agnes attacks the goat head.

The goat head received it with its scythe.

Do—n!

It didn't sound like metal hitting each other, but an explosion.

Shockwaves were also created. My clothes fluttered from the gust.

[She's good]

"Ahh"

[Otou-san, don't you need to held Io-oneechan?]

Hikari who was silent up until now asked.

"Let me think"

I approached Io who started to prepare to cast her spells, and asked with a small voice.

"Is there no problem, Io. Lightning magic, should I lend it to you?"

Io looked at me, and made a deeply moved expression.

But, that disappeared after a moment, and she shook her head.

"U～un, Kakeru-san, just look"

And she looked ahead.

“Just look at me right now”

“I got it”

I stepped back.

I returned to where I was before.

Io started to cast her magic.

Her magic powers heightened, her clothes shined from the light of the magic powers.

And at the same time, Agnes and Julia were stopping the goat head in the vanguard.

Unlike up until now, they’re having a hard time. They got wounds, but even so, the two were somehow stood their grounds, desperately stopping its feet for Io.

It even made me think that I should help their side.

“Agnes, Julia”

“I understood”

Getting called by Io, the two stepped back.

They took distance from the goat head as much as they could.

In the next instant, lightning fell from the sky.

It fell, it fell, and still falls.

One, two, three.....four, five, six.

It still continues, the raging lightning attacks the goat head.

The lightning magic consecutively shot, half-way, I couldn’t count how many there was.

[Fifty-six, fifty-seven, fifty-eight.....]

On my stead, Hikari was still counting.

And.

[One hundred]

With that, it was the end.

It's exactly a hundred. One hundred lightning fell from the sky, and all of them hit the goat head.

The goat head that was burnt black collapsed and didn't move anymore.

".....fuu"

"Ane-san!"

"Onee-sama"

To Io who got lethargic and almost fell down, Agnes and Julia ran

They supported her, and helped her not fall down.

"Thank you"

"No! Rather than that, it also reached one hundred today too huh!"

"Looking at Onee-sama's Lightning Hundred, it's always fascinating....."

"Please stop that embarrassing name"

Io said that, and looked at me.

It's a face saying, "How was it, how did I do".

The one she showed the two was her face as an "Onee-sama".

The one she showed me was a "Puppy"-like face.

How cute――

"O-Onee-sama!"

Julia called out Io's name as if to scream.

“W-What the?”

It was Agnes next.

The surprised two; I followed their sights.

And then, a goat head was there.

Unlike earlier, the subtlety face became heinous, and it was a muscular goat head.

And.

“Why.....why are there this many appearing”

“There’s even twenty of them.....something like this, this never happened”

The two girls got shocked.

It looks like an accident appeared.

“Onee-sama, let’s run away from here”

“I’ll be the rear guard, so, Ane-san, hurry”

I drew Eleanor and Hikari, and went in front clad in dark aura.

[You’re finally going huh]

[Hikari will do her best. One two~, three four~]

Both Eleanor and Hikari, their tones were excited.

“W-What are you planning to do”

“It’s just right on time. Onee-sama, let’s leave that man as a sacrifice and run away”

What a good way of saying huh.

“Run away? Why?”

On the other hand, Io was dumbfounded.
When I took a glance, Io was smiling pleasantly.

“There’s no need to run away you know”

Agnes and Julia lost their words.
Full trust that was being directed from Io.
I received that on my back, and clad in aura, I stepped forward naturally.

“Twenty, huh”
[You want to compete?]
“With what?”
[If you could defeat them faster than them or not]
“.....I’m in”

I grinned.
I felt presence holding their breath from behind, but for the meantime, I’ll ignore it.
I readied Eleanor and Hikari, and slashed towards them.
Twenty goat heads.

The time that I defeated all of them, was barely shorter than when Io and the girls defeated one.

CHAPTER 74

KAKERU BELIEVER

---

Along the way going back to the town of Roizen.

I told Io who was walking beside me.

“You’d gotten stronger huh”

“Really?”

Io’s eyes sparkled.

“Ahh, pretty much. When did you become something like an A rank adventurer?”

“It was a while ago. While Kakeru-san is busy, I’m clearing quests from the guild. It’s like when I noticed, it’s already like this”

“I see”

“Uhm.....Kakeru-san?”

“Un?”

“Did I.....really got stronger?”

Very timidly, she asked as if to check my face color.

“.....pu!”

It got funny, so I couldn’t help but laugh out.

“I-I’m sorry! I’m still not yet there after all right”

“Nope”

After taking a laugh, I said.

“You’d gotten stronger, with no doubt. You’d gotten stronger that you cannot be compared to when we just met”

“Really?!”

“Yeah”

I nodded clearly.

“.....I did it”

Io made a small guts pose.

That appearance of her was very cute.

She was so cute that I want to return to the mansion right away and push her down on the bed.

“And then? I’ve completely forgotten to ask it but, what was those two?”

I asked Io.

The two who’s taking about ten meters distance back after I defeated the goat head monster.

The ponytail female swordsman and clerical clothed female priest.

The two who were calling Io Ane-san and Onee-sama.

“Agnes and Julia?”

“Ahh. When did you get to know them?”

“Just a while ago. On that day, the two suddenly came and said[Please let us enter Io-san’s party!]

“That’s something I also heard somewhere”

When I said that, Io’s face reddened.

She said the same thing to me, and pushed herself to be in the same party with me. Honestly, it's the same pattern.

"From there, you were in the same party huh"

"Yes, when Kakeru-san's not around. Ah! It's alright, Kakeru-san, I'm telling the two girls that it is only a temporary party"

"Temporary?"

"What do you mean", I asked back.

"I refused because I'm already in another party, but they said that it's okay even if it's temporary party. If they say that much, I couldn't help it, so I accepted"

"He～"

I didn't get clearly how it means.

Is there something like a real party or a temporary party.

But well, from how Io said it, there probably is.

"It's real okay? I'm in, Kakeru-san's party after all"

"Ahh, I know"

I nodded.

"You're in my party, and you're my woman. Even if you say you'd want to leave, I won't let you"

I said with a little strong tone.

".....ehehe"

Io had a more and more grinning face.

“I got the story. You’re fighting monsters here and there with those two recently huh”

“Yes”

“And then, you’re being admired like Ane-san or Onee-sama”

“Yes.....”

Io looked down embarrassingly.

“I’m telling them to stop, but the two wouldn’t”

“Isn’t it alright, letting them call you like that”

“Eh!”

To Io who’s troubled, I said as a joke.

“Rather, you should win them over more and more. Io should win over them, and give them to me including yourself”

The footsteps stopped.

I looked at Io who stopped on her feet, she looked at me with a surprised face.

Mu, I said it wrongly huh.

That right now wasn’t good huh, it can’t be helped, I should make it up.....

“If I do that, would Kakeru-san be happy?”

“Un?”

“Uhm.....”

She took a glance to the two on the back, and said.

“If I win over the two, and let Kakeru-san e-eat us together, would you be happy?”

Io asked.

She stuttered, but her face was serious.

Her face was saying, if I said “Un”, she would really do that.

This reaction is unexpected.

It’s unexpected, but I don’t hate it.

“I guess so, I’d be happy”

“Then, I’ll do that”

Io smiled innocently, and nodded.

“I’d do that for Kakeru-san’s sake okay!”

Io, she showed me her best smile today.

THE WEALTHY MERCHANT'S VISAGE

---

I came to Delfina's merchant company using warp feather.

Today's the day she would come to my mansion, and I came to pick her up.

I first warped to Delfina's private room, but since she's not there, I went out to the hallway.

There was Delfina's male subordinate there. The man I'm familiar with saw me and bowed.

"Where's Delfina?"

"She is in the drawing room. The crown prince of Aegina Kingdom has visited, so"

"He～"

"I will guide you"

"No, it's alright. The drawing room's that very lavish-looking room for entertaining wealthy guests right? I can go there myself"

I said that to the man, and I started walking.

I'm already very used to Delfina's merchant company, and they're also very used to me.

Walking through the hallway, the various people who were working saw me and stopped, bowing their heads very deeply.

After a while, I met someone who wouldn't bow their head.

A sullen-faced middle-aged man came out from the room with a lavish door— from the drawing room.

From the clothes he wears, it felt like it's worn by royalties, so he's probably the crown prince of Aegina Kingdom I heard just earlier.

The crown prince took a glance at me, but as if I didn't appear in his eyes, he turned around and started walking.

While being curious with his tired face, I entered the drawing room.

“Kakeru-sama. You have visited”

“I just came. Was a little later better”

“No, our talk has just finished, so”

“Was that earlier the crown prince of Aegina?”

“Yes”

“He had a tired face though”

“Well that should be the case”

Delfina giggled a laugh.

She laughed covering her mouth with an elegant gesture. She had more elegance than noble ladies that can be seen around, and she’s releasing a bewitching air.

“I had refused one by one the things he had asked for, so it couldn’t be helped that he would get tired”

“Asked for?”

I sat across Delfina.

I moved aside the cup that was probably used by that crown prince.

“Actually, I bought a town”

“.....he～?”

“There’s a town under the reign of Aegina called Malonei, but it has financial difficulties in the recent years, and it’s also a town that is completely relying on the aid coming from their capital. And there I came, using the deficits and the support from now on as a card, I gave the condition of replacing all the officials to my subordinates”

“I see, it’s like you substantially bought it huh”

“Yes, I also let the noble who governs there be dismissed, But it seems like it’s a noble that had governed that land through years and generations, they cried this out to their kingdom, and because of that the crown prince came asking if something could be done with it”

“I see”

I got the story pretty much. He had that tired face because of that huh.

“But, why did you buy something like a town? Are you planning something like invading with economy, build a country and become a queen or something”

“Not at all. I will just say that Malonei has that value”

Delfina, from a serious face——she had a serious face with a faint smile.

When she’s talking about business, she always makes this kind of face.

My heart skipped a beat. It’s her face as a merchant, but——it is terribly beautiful.

“That town has been running on a deficit because of its administration up until now, but around it, rare materials are still buried, so. I let someone investigate it, and the result, it was not exhausted, but only incapable of excavating it because they could not give proper wages. Even with those resources alone are worth the money. It’s high-risk, and super-high return”

“I see”

I got impressed, as expected of Delfina.

As a merchant, she is very severe, and that is what’s the best of her.

I asked about Malonei.

Putting together, she said that it’s a”pump requiring a large volume of water”, and the people who could prepare that water is limited.

Well, if she’d be successful with it, it’s fine.

“Come to think of it”

Delfina's expression changed.

It's a different type of smile from earlier, it's a face when she would chat and could say jokes.

"I was proposed to"

"Pu!"

I laughed out.

"Proposed to, you say, from that man earlier huh"

"Yes. I'm a woman, so he probably thought that if he gained me, all of it could be erased"

"Fu~n"

"What a scary face. Of course I refused"

It's not like I'm making a scary face though.

"You refused huh"

"Yes. Have you forgotten? I have decided that I would marry the man who would buy all of what I have including myself"

"Was that so"

I remembered she said something like that before.

Wealthy Merchant Delfina who has equal wealth with a kingdom.

There was, of course, many people who come to her with her youth and beauty, but her condition is "A person who would buy everything she had including herself using their wealth".

In short, mergers and acquisitions.

The condition of marrying the financial group female CEO is to M&A that financial group.

“What’s your current asset?”

“It’s almost the same with Mercouri’s national budget for a year”

“Well, that’s very hard, buying that”

“I am always waiting for you to buy it”

Delfina graciously smiled. This time, she had a face of a woman.

“I’ll do my best to do something as fast as I can. If I’m too slow, I might get bought by you instead”

I remembered about Malonei, and said that jokingly.

“That would be quite difficult”

Delfina’s expression changed again.

It’s her face as a merchant.

“I had also thought about that, but that is quite difficult desu wa. Kakeru-sama’s total value is too high after all”

“Is that so?”

“Roughly calculating, it’s five times of mine”

“Isn’t that too high?”

“Not at all”

Delfina shook her head.

Her expression’s still the same.

The one that I like——Delfina’s expression that I like the most.

Wealthy Merchant Delfina, with that faint smile, she said.

“Demon Sword Wielder, Goshaku-sama, the name value of that. If you are going to be bought with money, political power that can silence Rika Calamba, Helen Teresia Mercouri, Aura Torideca Comotoria, princesses and queens who would intervene with their own political powers. On top of that, army strength that would stop Nana Kanou who holds the strongest strength excluding you. When all of those are taken into account and converted to money, the necessary expenses would be roughly five times of me”

Delfina said clearly up to the end with a serious face.

It seems like it's the evaluation of Wealthy Merchant Delfina.

I still can't buy Delfina.

Delfina also can't buy me.

It's interesting.

“.....”

When I noticed it, Delfina's expression changed again.

It's an expression I saw the first time today, it's a face that sulks a little.

“What happened”

“No, it is nothing”

“It's not nothing at all right”

“It is nothing at all”

She said that and finally turned her face away from me.

I wonder what it is.

For some reason, I followed where Delfina turned her face to, and arrived to the cup placed on the top of the table.

It's the crown prince's cup that I moved aside earlier.

She looked at that and sulks.

Maybe.

“Delfina, can I confirm one thing”

“What is it”

“I still haven’t bought you, but my reservation’s still there right”

“Reservation?”

“You can also call it negotiating rights. Until I abandon it, I have the first priority to buy you right”

Delfina got dumbfounded for a while, and then, changed her expression.

That face, it’s her face that I saw today for the first time.

“O-Of course desu wa”

It was the same face when I had an agreement with her the first time.

CHAPTER 76

THE WEALTHY MERCHANT'S HEART

(SIDE DELFINA)

---

In the hallway of Kakeru's mansion.

I, Delfina Homer Lamanri, is on the way to Kakeru-sama's room.

Inside Kakeru-sama's mansion, and just got out of the bath. But, my clothes are for going out.

Wearing night dress of the highest grade used for going to parties, with hair that is well set, using a perfume that can be taken as elegant or vulgar.

I have prepared myself to be embraced by Kakeru-sama.

My body is prepared, but my heart...

Walking in the hallway, my heart wouldn't stop pounding.

My throat is coarse, and my chest is painful as if it was tightened.

It's a little different from pain. It's not only painful.

Finding a word to describe it, it would be a "sweet ache", and I have already known that.

Everyone.....I wonder if they also feel like this.

I wonder if it's always like this when they are going towards where Kakeru-sama is.

It has been a while since I am being embraced by that person, but there are no signs of getting used to this at all, rather, it is getting stronger and stronger.

But even so, I should not show it to my face.

I am sure that Kakeru-sama would not want me who is like that.

While walking in the hallway, I continued the effort of controlling my expression.

"Oh"

I met a woman wearing a hood along the hall way.

I can't see her face, her voice was that of an old woman.

Althea, Great Sage Althea.

The mysterious presence that lives in Kakeru-sama's mansion.

Other than the slave soldiers, the only woman who has yet to be embraced by Kakeru.

"Greetings, Althea-sama"

"Are you going to his room now"

"Yes, today is my turn, or how it seems"

"It would be difficult doing it with him alone you know? I also heard that he had reached a new level"

"A new level?"

"He made Immortal Saint Melissa give up for only a few hours"

"As expected of him huh"

"Are you not surprised"

"My mind could not catch up if I keep on getting surprised with what Kakeru-sama does. In front of that person, every woman would become just a woman"

"Including you?"

"Including you, sooner or later that is"

"I am looking forward to that"

Althea laughed giggling.

Other than the time when she had regained her youth with Kakeru-sama's vigor, her face couldn't be seen, hidden by a hood.

Once again, I was going towards Kakeru-sama's room, but I stopped my feet.

I stopped, and stared at Althea.

Great Sage Althea. The legendary person who had given advice on numerous overlords and heroes in history.

If it was this person, maybe.....

“What is it”

“What should I do.....to receive an advice from you. Great Sage Althea, I had heard on rumors that with normal means, you would not give an advice to a stranger. What do I need to do at times when there is something that I really need to ask”

“You overestimate me, I am “just” Althea. Egotistic, just Althea. I am just, dealing with those things that I am interested in and to”

“With money——”

“I am not interested with that. Just say it if you want to? If I am interested in it, I might have an answer”

“.....”

I hesitated.

I had rarely received and advice from anyone up until now.

To be able to live in the world of business, decision making and ability to take action that is several times of a normal person is needed.

There are a lot of time that one would be slowed down the more they ask for advice.

That is why, I had always decided with myself.

But, the one who is in front of my is the legendary great sage. And, my question does not have any urgency.

I should just ask her and see what would happen.

“What do I need to do.....to get used to him”

I asked while placing my hand on my chest.

This heart pounding, how should I get used to it.

“That’s impossible”

Althea casually said.

“Impossible?”

“That’s right, impossible. I know that feeling, the feeling, that all of the women that are in this mansion have”

As I’ve thought, it was like that.....

“If the other person is a normal man, it might be possible to get used to it after a while. However, he is not a normal man. He is a man who would get greater and greater, and would continue to move forward”

Un.

“I can say this clearly. You, who would go to his place tonight, would have that feeling getting stronger on the next day”

“That.....I would get troubled. I won’t, but.....I’ll get troubled”

I know myself that it’s incoherent.

“There is no way on how to get used to it, but I know a way to change that to another thing”

“What is that?”

“In your case, you should spread your business more. You should become a greater and greater merchant. Thinking that as a woman of Yuuki Kakeru, you’d become a woman that would not be an embarrassment for him”

“Greater.....”

“Using that feeling as a fuel. I can also say this clearly. The more that his woman become greater, the more that he would get happy; that he is a man who has a huge tolerance”

“Un, I know that”

“Then, you know what you have to do”

“.....yes”

That’s right, I only need to do that huh.

If I could not keep this feeling that burn in my chest, I should just use it as the energy that would make me suitable for Kakeru-sama’s woman.

Something like that, something as simple as that, I wonder why I was not able to come up with it until now.

“Thank you very much, Althea-sama”

“.....”

Althea left without saying anything.

I couldn’t see her face until the end, but I felt that she had smiled at me pleasantly.

I continued to walk, going towards Kakeru-sama’s room.

Along the way, I vowed silently, keeping this feeling within my chest.

I should expand my business, and become the world’s number one—the greatest merchant in history.

To a merchant, who would not have less asset than anyone.

After all, I am reserved to get bought by Kakeru-sama. All of me is reserved to get bought by Kakeru-sama.

If I cannot do at least that, I will not be suitable with Kakeru-sama.

The moment I thought of that, my heart, got a lot lighter.

CHAPTER 77

GHOST AND DEMON SWORD AND NEW ARMY

---

Night, for some reason, I felt a presence and raised my body from between Io and Delfina.

I heightened my senses and stared outside of the window.

There's nothing strange from how the air flows, my sight and hearing that are multiplied by 777 times can't catch anything strange.

But, something's strange.

Something's——there.

“Kakeru-sama.....please.....more”

“Kakeru-san dai～suki”

Leaving the two, I went down from the bed.

I wore a coat, and left the room holding Eleanor.

“.....above huh”

[You felt it]

“You knew it?”

[It's rather my specialty]

Eleanor casually spoke.

Specialty, you say, what is?

I left the mansion once while still thinking of it strangely, and jumped after concentrating strength on my feet.

I jumped to the roof. In there, there was Tanya's appearance.

A ghost who's wearing a maid outfit with faint lights emitted periodically from her translucent body.

She was once a bound spirit within this mansion that I released, a maid ghost that is currently possessing both Eleanor and the mansion.

Her name is Tanya Chichiakis. And in front of that Tanya, there was a girl wearing a maid outfit.

Her age is about twenty. Opposite to Tanya who is lovely, she seemed sharp, and looked like a maid that could do her job well.

But, they're the same with their body being translucent, and floats in the air a little.

"She's also a ghost huh.....ahh, by your specialty, you mean it like that huh"

[Umu, I've not led undead armies for hundreds of years for show]

Eleanor said as if to brag a little. As a Demon Sword, her ability to sense things like this is probably high.

Tanya and the other ghost haven't noticed us.

It looks like they're talking about something, so I eavesdropped a patiently.

[Then, Peggy-chan still want to work huh]

[Yes.....but even so, I got sick.....it's regrettable]

[I think that you'd better rest in peace just like this though. There's no problem if you'd just become a ghost, but, as time passes, your head would become strange, and you would gradually lose yourself]

Tanya said. Coming from her who lost her sanity, it's very convincing.

[But.....]

[I understand that you have regrets though]

[Can't something be done, senpai]

[U~n]

Tanya tilted her head.

I got quite curious, so I decided to join their conversation.

“Yo”

[Ah! It's Kakeru. Sorry, was it noisy?]

“No, you weren't. Rather than that, she is?”

[I'll introduce her okay. Peggy Addis-chan. She's a freshly died newly born ghost～]

What kind of ghost is that.

[S-Senpai.....this person is?]

[My Master. This mansion's owner. He's called Kakeru]

[Master?]

“It's like this”

I raised Eleanor, and invoked. And then, Tanya was absorbed within Eleanor.

[Wa!]

When Peggy was surprised, I invoked again. Tanya appeared again.

“It's like that”

[Can something like this be done with ghosts?]

[Kakeru's just special, after all, the one he's holding right now is Demon Sword Eleanor you know]

[Demon Sword――ehhhhhh!! Demon Sword Eleanor?!]

After a moment of pause, she screamed.

[I-Is it the real thing]

“You want to hold her?”

[Don't try it, if an existence that is just a spirit touches me, at worst, she might disappear]

Since Eleanor had advised me with a very serious tone inside my head, I pulled back the sword that I reached out.

Peggy stared at me.

She stared at me intently as if to expect something.

What is it, those eyes.

[Ne~, Kakeru]

Tanya asked from the side. With a tone that is very careful, as if to check on me.

[That Demon Sword, can ghosts still enter it?]

“Un? If there's still a capacity you mean? How is it, Eleanor”

[Have you forgotten about the undead army]

It's an answer very Eleanor-like.

“It seems like it can, and there's still a lot—ahh”

“She meant it like that huh”, I noticed.

I looked at Peggy's way.

Eyes as if to expect something, and the thing Tanya asked at the beginning.

It means like that.

[Kakeru]

Tanya asked. I thought for a while.

A certain spectacle appears inside my head.

“You, can you fight. Do you have an ability that can be used for battles?”

[Uhhh.....]

Peggy looked down very apologetically.

[I was able to use flame magic when I was still alive, but now.....]

She said that, reached out her hand, and released a ball of flame.

But, that ball is translucent just like her body, and passed through the roof without releasing any sound.

[Just like this, I can use it, but I can't]

“I see. Your name is Peggy Addis right. Lend flame magic powers to Peggy Addis”

【Magic Powers of Flames will be lent to Peggy Addis. Time Remaining: 29 seconds】

“Try to shoot magic once again. Ahh, this time, rather than shooting towards the mansion, shoot towards me”

[Eh?!]

Peggy got confused.

[Try it]

Tanya said with a smile as if to encourage her.

She had experience with it, so I felt like Tanya was excited because she could imagine what would happen next.

[T-Then.....ei～]

She reached out her hand, and shot the flame magic.

The magic powers boosted by lending the 777 multiplication ability, became a huge ball of flames larger than my body.

[Eh! N-No――]

She looked to be panicking with its size, and Peggy tried to erase the magic in a hurry, but it didn't go well and the ball of flame flew towards me.

I swung Eleanor, clearing it away.

The huge ball of flames was cleared by the Demon Sword, bursts and scattered.

[Eh.....amazing.....]

“Hmm, if I lend magic powers she can fight huh”

[Ne～ne～, Kakeru, Kakeru]

“What”

[You know, I feel that my magic powers had increased recently]

“He～”

In this timing, Tanya told me that.

She probably wants to say that ghosts have growth too.

“Yosh, I got it. Since you're introduced by Tanya, I'll let you work in my place”

[Ah!.....Yes!]

“I'll place you inside Eleanor once”

I said that and raised Eleanor up, and invoked with the same feeling as with Tanya.

Peggy disappeared once, and appeared again.

Somehow, the air around her changed. Peggy who I summoned from inside Eleanor was a little different.

And, could she feel it herself, Peggy looked at her own hands very carefully.

[Welcome, Peggy-chan]

[Yes! Senpai]

Just like this, the ghosts inside Eleanor became two.

[You, are you planning on recreating the undead army]

“Well, yeah, you don’t like it?”

[I have no complains if it’s female ghosts]

Eleanor answered immediately.

She has no complaints with females? Placing men inside is bad――.

I thought up to there, and suddenly realized.

Ahh, that’s right, that is not good at all.

Even though it’s a ghost that would be inside Eleanor, it is not good putting a man inside.

“Don’t worry, I won’t put men inside”

[.....hmph]

Eleanor snorted, it seems like she’s satisfied with that.

CHAPTER 78

KAKERU'S IMPOSTOR

---

On this day, I came to the Purosu-Diner after a long time.

“Welcome! Ah, Kakeru-san!”

A young girl wearing an apron and a hood, this shop's poster girl Fiona came over.

“It has been a while. Oh, you have really been not coming recently, so I thought you were already fed up with us”

Fiona said jokingly. That move is very poster girl-like, she knows how to break the ice with moderated jokes.

That's why I also replied jokingly.

“Having a child makes it harder to each outside”

[Don't make it as if it's Hikari's fault!]

Eleanor got angry inside my mind although it's just a joke. She's always saying that I'm a doting parent, but I think she's more of a doting parent than me.

It's just that she can't turn into human form from a Demon Sword in this world, that it makes it not stand out.

“Ahaha, Hikari-chan's pitiful if you say something like that. For today, Hikari-chan, she's not with you?”

“She went out and play. She said something like there's a wishing flower? or something, and went to the forest's direction”

“Ara, you let Hikari-chan go by herself”

“No? I made someone follow her of course”

“Kusu, well, that is right. Hikari-chan, she’s very lovely, so it would be bad if something happens”

“Yeah”

[What the heck’s that “Yeah”. How can you say that after making Nana Kanou and all of the 200 slave soldiers guard her]

That much is normal right.

“I’m sorry, it looks like I stopped you for a talk. Please come to this seat”

Fiona guided me to a seat with a bright smile.

I ordered this store’s best seller, mountain cow fried rice and some other recommended dishes.

After I waited for a while, the food was brought one next to the other.

I took a bite-size, and put it in my mouth.

“Un?”

“Is something wrong?”

“Somehow, isn’t the taste a little different than usual?”

“Ufufu, you have noticed?”

“That way of speaking, did you change something?”

“Yes, we changed. Well, although that was said, it’s only for Kakeru-san”

“For me only?”

What does she mean?

When I was thinking of it strange, Fiona pointed to the kitchen’s direction.

And when I looked there, I met eyes with Marie who was showing her face.

Marie immediately blushed, and went back inside the kitchen.

“What’s up with her”

“Only Kakeru-san’s food, Marie made them”

“He〜”

I continued and picked up another dish and put it inside my mouth. I also scooped the famous fried rice with a china spoon and ate a spoonful.

“Tastes delicious”

“Please say that to that girl later. I’m sure she would get happy”

“Yeah, I’ll do that”

“I’m counting on you okay〜”

Fiona said that, and was called by another customer.

For a while, I enjoyed the dishes Marie made for me by myself.

“Oi! I’m a customer!”

Suddenly, there was an impudent voice coming from the entrance of the store.

When I looked towards the direction of the voice, a burly skinhead man was standing with a grinning face.

That guy who’s wearing a cape, for some reason, was acting like showing off that thing in his waist.

[That is.....]

“It’s you”

[That’s wrong! It is not me! It is my impostor]

Eleanor got a little angry. That’s right, the thing the man had in his waste was something that looked exactly like Eleanor, the Demon Sword replica that is famous recently.

I don't know if it's the old version, or the new one that can create an aura, but it looks exactly the same as her in their appearance.

Fiona came over to that man in a hurry.

"Welcome, is Customer-sama by himself"

"Yeah"

"I'm sorry, there are no vacant tables right now.....are you fine with sharing a seat"

"Aann? That's a joke right, can't you see this?"

The man showed off the demon sword replica.

"That is.....Demon Sword——"

"That's right, it's that Demon Sword Eleanor. This isn't an imitation by the way"

The man placed his hand in its grip. The next instant, a dark aura came out from the sword.

[It looks like it's a new one]

"Seems so"

"Ha～....."

Fiona looked at my direction.

I shrugged my shoulders, and the two of us made a wry laugh.

"I won't hide this, I am the Demon Sword Wielder, Goshaku Kakeru"

"Ohh!"

I couldn't help but let out a voice, the man glared at me.

"What the fuck are you, you have something to say?"

“No, no, it is nothing”

To the sudden development, I couldn't help myself to reply with a little respectful tone.

[This is great, your impostors also finally started to appear]

“I'm surprised”

I was so surprised, and got interested instead.

I rested my chin on a hand, and observed the progress.

“This great one made his way to come to a store like this, prepare something like a seat in a hurry” (TL: Ore-sama)

“E~to.....”

Fiona made a troubled face.

She's not afraid of being intimidated, she has a troubled look like “what should I do with this”.

“Ahh, Fiona-chan, I'm finished eating here, so”

One of the customers gave her help.

Fiona hurriedly said thanks, accounted, and cleaned the table.

The man sat there while making a sound when he sat.

“E~to, what would you like?”

“Something tasty, just bring me something tasty”

“I understood”

Fiona answered, and returned to the kitchen.

Along the way, she passed by me.

“Isn’t it amazing, Kakeru-san, it’s an impostor”

She whispered to me.

It looks like Fiona was also completely having fun about it.

Even so.....my impostor, huh.

Once again, I observed that guy.

Other than the demon sword replica in his waist, he didn’t have anything similar to me.

What makes him say that he’s me, I got a little curious.

I stood up, and approached that guy.

“Hello”

“Aann, what the fuck are you”

“I’m sorry, actually, I’m a huge fan of Kakeru-san”

“Hou”

The man got obviously in a good mood.

“I heard a lot of rumors about Kakeru-san, but I haven’t met him. I didn’t think that I would meet you here”

“Hmph, say thanks to your fortune”

“By the way, are you really Kakeru-san?”

“Can’t you see this”

Fake Kakeru showed off his demon sword replica.

“No, actually, I also have that”

I said that, and held the real Eleanor.

I put some strength, and released a dark aura.

Fake Kakeru who touched the aura a bit shook his body.

“Look, isn’t this popular recently. I’m also Kakeru-san’s fan so I immediately bought it. Quite a lot of people have it you know”

“Mu!”

“Do you have other proofs?”

“Of course I do”

The man returned to this smug face, and said.

“Here”

The man showed his cape.

On the back of the cape, a mark shaped like a pentagram star was drawn.

“You know this great one right? I’m Goshaku-sama who had received noble titles from all five major countries. This family crest is the proof”

“Ohh～”

This is a little interesting.

[You had something like a family crest huh]

I could hear Eleanor’s enjoying voice.

Of course, I don’t have something like a family crest. There were a lot of talks about making one, but because of things happening, it couldn’t be helped to be put aside.

By the way, the one who’s telling me to make a family crest is mostly Nana.

For her who leads the slave soldiers, it seems like she wants something that can be used as a mark or a flag.

“That’s amazing, as expected of Goshaku-sama”

“Hmph. You, you look promising”

“Is that so?”

“Yosh, sit there. Since you’re lucky, this great one will let you hear about his greatness”

“Wa～i”

“In the first place, you know, the reason why this great one got a noble title from the five major countries is——”

Fake Kakeru was in a great mood, and started to brag.

The things that that guy said were something that I don’t know about.

In short, it’s a made-up story, and I got impressed that he’s able to make something like that.

When I was listening to his story while giving responses.

“Ah! Kakeru-san, I finally found you”

Io appeared, and stood in front of me

“Kakeru-san?”

Ignoring the surprised Fake Kakeru, Io looked only at me, and said.

“I searched for you. E～to, there was a message from Calamba’s Queen and Comotoria’s princess”

“Rica and Aura huh. What did they say”

“They said the same thing. “If you have time for tonight, it would be pleasant if you can come”“

“I see. Give them a reply, tell them that I’ll take them to the mansion, so get ready”

“I understood”

Io nodded, and turned back.

She took a glance at Fake Kakeru along the way, but she only tilted her head, and immediately left.

After Io had left, Fake Kakeru said to me.

“H-Hmph, what an interesting joke, no what an act”

“Un?”

“Something like the Queen of Calamba, or princess of Comotoria. Did you think I’d be fooled with that made-up story. Unfortunately for you——”

Fake Kakeru said with a somewhat shivering voice.

Cheers were suddenly raised.

It could be heard from outside the store.

“What is it about”, when I was thinking of that, the store’s door opened, and Helen entered.

Helen who was wearing her princess’ dress came over me with elegant gestures.

“Kakeru-sama”

“Yeah, what is it, Helen”

“I have something to consult with Kakeru-sama.....but, did I interrupt”

Helen took a glance at Fake Kakeru.

Not knowing the situation, she probably thought that Fake Kakeru’s my acquaintance. Helen who places me on top, has a tendency on making the people I know like that too.

Receiving that, Fake Kakeru.

“H-Hmph, this time it’s a Fake Helen-sama huh. Unfortunately, I can’t be fooled with something like that”

Fake Kakeru bluffed. I'm starting to feel bad about him now.

I reached out my hand, and casted magic on the tiara Helen was wearing.

It's the magic that distinguishes the royal family's belongings. It's magic that anyone can use, and one that even I learned.

And then, the royal house's emblem appeared from Helen's tiara.

"Wha!"

Fake Kakeru was short on his words. It's because he found out that Helen was a true princess.

"Kakeru-sama? This is"

"K-Kakeru-sama?"

"Yes. You, are you not an acquaintance of Kakeru-sama"

Helen made a strange face.

Fake Kakeru rapidly became white-faced.

Well, if he's told that the real thing that he's naming himself for was in front of him, he'd be like that huh.

"It looks like he's also Kakeru"

"Ara"

"On top of that, it looks like he also have Eleanor"

"Ara, ara"

"That thing on his cape looks like it's Goshaku-sama's family crest"

"There was something like that huh"

Helen thought for a while, and it seems like she finally caught up.

“Is it, Kakeru-sama’s impostor.....?”

When I nodded, Helen’s expressions changed.

She made a quiet, but angry face.

“In the kingdom’s laws, assuming a noble’s name is an official crime. Assuming the name of Mercouri Kingdom’s Marquis is a serious crime”

“H-Hiiiiii”

Fake Kakeru fell from his chair, and landed on his ass.

“Someone, catch this man”

“F-Forgive us～～”

Fake Kakeru ran away.

Helen’s subordinates who entered from outside were about to chase after him.

“Leave it alone, Helen”

I stopped her.

“But, that man assumed Kakeru-sama’s name——”

“It’s alright, it’s not like there was any harm. And also, I look forward to it”

“Look forward?”

Helen got surprised.

“It’s the same with Eleanor’s impostors, the thing that came out after has evolved compared to the first thing that came out right?”

[Do not involve me in this!]

“Just like that, I’m looking forward on how my impostors would evolve”

“Ha～ .....

Helen made an “I can’t understand” face.

“Let’s look at that together, let’s look forward to it”

“I cannot understand very well, but.....if Kakeru-sama says so”

Helen got convinced.

Well then, I wonder how my impostor look like next time? I’m seriously looking forward to it a little.

[Over time, Hikari’s impostor might appear too]

An instant death penalty for something like that.

CHAPTER 79

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER HAWKS

---

I left the Purosu-Diner, left the town, and went towards the forest.

There might be a possibility of missing each other, so I went there not by using the warp feather, but by walking.

I walked slowly under the sunset.

[You're name's getting famous quite well]

"Un?"

[My impostor in the rumors up until now, and an impostor of yours finally appeared.

It is proof that you are smoothly getting famous]

"What an annoying thing"

[Over time, Hikari's impostor might also]

"Mu!"

That'd piss me off seriously. I was also told that in the Purosu-Diner, but it really pisses me off.

[However, there's nothing that you can do]

I know that.

[Also, I do not dislike it]

"What?"

I heard Eleanor's enjoying laughter inside my head.

[In times when I essentially controlled this world, humans would tremble with just my name. It's a good thing, you know? The pleasure beyond the extremity of infamy. Eleanor and Hikari, it is also not that bad, throwing this world once again into the abyss of fear with those names]

"You idiot"

I flicked my finger on Eleanor.

Ki~n, Ki~n, two beautiful sounds were made with one flick. The 100% additional attack ability activated.

I went towards the forest while chatting with Eleanor.

I entered the forest, and searched for human presence.

I immediately found it. At the very back, there was a lot of human presence.

When I walked towards there, I saw Hikari, Nana, and the slave soldiers in an open space in the forest.

Everyone's searching for something. "What are they doing", I thought, so I stopped to a halt and looked at them.

"Hikari-sama, this is from the second platoon. Is this the right one"

Nana showed the thing she received from a slave soldier to Hikari.

It's a weed-like flower. It's a weed-like flower with 7 small buds.

"One, two, three—seven. Un! There's seven. This one's correct~"

After Hikari had received it from Nana, she went to the group of slave soldiers who found it, and bowed her head with a very lovely gesture.

"Thank you very much, Onee-chan"

One of the 10 slave platoons, the group of 20 slave soldiers made a troubled face.

[What a good daughter]

“Of course”

I exchanged simple words with Eleanor.

Eleanor was slightly very proud.

“Hikari-sama, that flower, how many of it is still needed”

“E～to, ne.....Onee-chans, how many are you”

“Onee-chans, if you say”

This time, Nana made a troubled face.

Looking at an unusual side of her is fun.

“Are you talking about, the slave soldiers”

“Un!”

“If so, there are exactly 200 of them”

“There were that many huh～.....it’s hard, then”

Hikari looked at the flower that she has in her hand, and said that.

“Is it that, this is for the slave soldiers?”

“Un!”

“It was not for Aruji huh.....”

Nana was surprised, I was also surprised.

It’s because when I heard that Hikari was going to search for a flower that can make any wish come true, I was very sure that it was a present for me.

[Kukuku, too bad huh, doting parent]

“Shut up, you’re noisy”

I got a little upset.

“Otou-san? It’s not like that. It’s because, Otou-san, is su—per amazing, the most amazing in the world, so. Even if there are no flowers, the wishes will come true right”

Hikari said with a smile full of innocence.

“Hmph”

[You show off]

It looks like Eleanor was a little upset.

“I thought of searching for the flower, and give it to Onee-chans. Thank you, Onee-chans”

Hikari lowered her head again.

Hikari’s appearance of making a bow that is very dynamic using her whole body was the loveliest in the whole wide world.

“If Onee-chans were not here, I could not find them. Truly, thank you very much”

She said, and showed a smile again.

To that appearance, the slave soldiers who were there, and the slave soldiers that had returned after were head over heels.

“Second Platoon!”

One of the slave soldiers, the platoon leader girl shouted.

“We’re going to find the flower! The quota is one flower each! The ones who did not find one will have no meal”

“Eight Platoon! Do everything to find it!”

The slave soldiers scattered. They became very fired up in an instant, and started to search for the flower.

“Wawa, Onee-chans got angry.....they got angry?”

She almost misunderstood that their determination was anger, but half-way, Hikari tilted her head like “A-re?”.

[Hmm, she immediately caught the hearts of the slave soldiers huh]

“As expected of Hikari”

[She’s my daughter after all]

“It’s because she’s my daughter”

While arguing with something like that, I went towards where Hikari is.

I returned to the town together with Hikari, Nana, and the slave soldiers.

The 200 slave soldiers, all of them properly have a flower on their chest.

The result of searching altogether after that, they were able to somehow gather a number equal to them.

By the way, as the result of the platoon leader of the first platoon “begging”, Hikari placed the flowers in their chests one by one.

And with that, everyone was more and more fallen to Hikari.

“Mu, this is”

“What is it, Otou-san”

“It’s Marie’s cave”

“Marie’s cave?”

Hikari tilted her head.

“I see, Hikari didn’t know about it huh”

Marie’s cave, the place where Eleanor’s previous power, the hell’s army are sealed to. Since it couldn’t be completely annihilated, the cave was sealed, and is being monitored by the guild.

The adventurer with the role of the monitor, a young man I’m familiar with came over to me with a jog.

“Hello! It’s been a while, Kakeru-san!”

“Yeah”

“What is it today? Did you go to war or something?”

The adventurer looked behind me.

200 slave soldiers, it can’t be helped if he could see it like that.

“No, it’s not like.....”

“Kakeru-san?”

“Nana”

I talked to Nana, not the adventurer.

“Ha!”

“How’s the progress of the training?”

“If it’s against the same numbers, they could hold on to a certain level”

“They’d gotten better than last time huh. Yosh, let’s train”

This time, I faced the adventurer and said.

“My bad, but, can you release the seal just like before. I will take all of the res—”

“I understood!”

The adventurer ran towards the cave. I was planning to say “I’ll take all of the responsibility” but he accepted without me finishing.

[That guy’s also your follower huh]

“I’m not that happy if it’s from a man though”

I shrugged my shoulders.

I watched the slave soldiers fight, while sitting with Hikari and my back against a tree. With Nana’s commands, the slave soldiers are fighting against the undead army. They’re losing one versus one, by cooperating with numbers they’re finally equal, and with Nana’s command, outpacing the amount they appear from the sealing point. They were fighting like that.

“Kyaaaa!”

“Kuwa!”

“Verna! Bashira!”

“First platoon, fall back! Aruji! Can I receive the permission to use recovery items”

“The magic balls? Use freely the ones I gave you”

“Ha! Thank you very much”

The first platoon fell back with Nana's orders, recovered and took a breath.

The slave soldiers continued to fight, then suddenly, from the defeated, disappearing skeleton, one lottery ticket appeared.

I stood up, went to it, and picked it up.

I confirmed it, and with no doubt, it's "that" lottery ticket.

"Aruji?"

Nana thought of it strange.

"It's nothing. Rather than that, fight more and more. There's no better training than a real fight"

"Ha!"

Nana returned to give commands.

"Nana"

"Ha!"

I called Nana to a stop, and she turned around to look at me.

"Tell me the one who was the most active within the slaves later, I'll give her a reward"

"Understood"

She said that, and this time for sure, she returned.

The tickets increased, I even thought that if I got something good from the lottery, I could give that to her.

The training with a real battle continues.

The slave soldiers were gradually tiring.

“It’s about time to make them stop, and wait until their stamina recovers”, it was when I was thinking of that.

“Kyaaaaa!!”

“W-What in the world is this”

“So big.....and this cold feeling.....”

The slave soldiers got noisy.

“What is it”, I thought, and when I took a look, a giant that have a fierce face with unique horns and fangs appeared from the sealing point.

Hell’s Emperor Sandros, the trump card of the hell’s army Eleanor had led once, it’s a guy that changes the war by itself.

That guy came out, the situation of the battle literally changed.

With its first blow, tens of slave soldiers were blown off with its strong arm at once.

And with an additional attack, it kicked away tens of them.

The slave soldiers were routed in an instant.

“Hmph!”

Nana jumps towards it.

With her cape fluttering, she closed the distance in an instant, and attacks it.

“Nana-sama!”

I heard the voice of relief of the slave soldiers, and in the next instant.

“Ku!!”

Nana was blown off by its arm.

She was blown off, regained her position, and attacks it again.

She swung her sword, slashing it numerous times creating a net of lightning. Sandro received that, and counterattacked. Nana who had guessed that used its arm as a foothold, and slashed its head straight on.

“They’re equal”

[Umu. However, that guy’s stamina is inexhaustible]

“She’s disadvantaged with a long drawn fight huh”

Nana fought against it evenly, but it is also an uphill battle.

Among the slave soldiers, some of them noticed that, and made signs of going to support Nana with their weapons.

“Stop”

I stopped them.

“But, with this, Nana-sama will!”

“Just stop and listen. Nana”

“Ha!”

“Fall back”

“Ha!”

Nana exchanged blows with Sandro, and fall back with its momentum just as she was ordered.

“UOOOOOOOOO!!”

Sandro looked up and roared. From how he looked, he’s haven’t changed from before.

“Hikari”

“Un!”

Hikari nodded, and transformed to her Demon Sword form.

I held that, readied it with Eleanor, and went towards Sandros.

That guy hasn't changed, but I did.

It was only Eleanor before, but there's Hikari now.

I don't feel losing at all.

“UOOOOOOO!!”

“Yes, thanks for your hard work”

I received its punch with Eleanor, and beheaded it using Hikari, then split it vertically using Eleanor.

Sandros was cross slashed, its huge body collapsed then, thinned and disappeared.

I picked up the lottery ticket that remained after it disappeared.

When I turned back, I felt that eyes were focused on me.

The slave soldiers, they were staring at me with passionate eyes.

Most of them are admiration, but some of them had a woman's face.

CHAPTER 80

THE SECOND TIME

---

I feel like it has been a while since I came to the lottery place.

Hikari and I, and Eleanor who could only turn into human form here.

Hikari embraces her mother Eleanor like “Here I am!”.

“Waaa～”

Hikari’s eyes shined.

“What is it”

Eleanor asked back. This girl, the corner of her eyes obviously drops, and her tone becomes gentle when she’s in contact with Hikari.

But she would get angry if I point that out, so I won’t.

“Look, look, Hikari’s hair”

“Hair?”

“Un! Hikari’s hair, it’s now the same length with Okaa-san”

Hikari said that, and I looked at the two who were near each other carefully.

Eleanor’s human appearance is mostly like a child’s, although she’s very small, on the other hand, her hair was very long, it reaches the back of her knee.

And seemingly like that, Hikari’s hair also reaches the back of her knee.

Saying that their length was now the same, Hikari was very happy.

“Good for you”

“Un! I’ll make it like Okaa-san forever okay”

“Don’t mind me. Hikari should change into different hairstyles, and become more lovely”

“Being like Okaa-san is the best!”

“Is that so”

Eleanor’s gaze became more and more loving. She patted Hikari’s head who was embracing her kindly.

The Demon Sword mother and daughter, they were bonding there.

“Uhhh.....how many times should I tell you”

I heard the staff's voice from a little far away.

She rolled her eyes and stared at us across the lottery machine.

“Can you not bring your nonstandard family bonding here? We are really troubled with that”

“Can you please bear with us a little. This is the only place Hikari could meet this”

“Don't call me “this””

Eleanor protested.....but, her gaze was very soft.

And Hikari who was hugging that Eleanor was making a face full of smile. Honestly, she's 777 times cuter than Eleanor.

Does the staff also understand that part, she looked at Hikari's smile, and then.

“Oh really, it can't be helped. Just a little okay”

“My bad”

“Rather than that——*Gohon*. Today will be the last day for the limited lottery”

The staff regained herself and said that.

“It's already the last day, so quick huh”

“Yes it is already. Dear Customer, you haven't come recently, were you busy”

“Well, yeah, somewhat”

“This will be the last day to gain this skill, so please do your best to get it okay”

I feel pumped up hearing that it's the last day; just like what the staff said, I now wanted to really get it.

The number of lottery tickets I have is 20.

20 pieces I collected from buying a lot of things, and making the slave soldiers fight against the undead army.

I will be able to draw 22 times with this.

I looked at the prizes list once again.

I said that, and thought with the mother and daughter on my side having a heart warming scene.

I have 20 lottery tickets, and that means 22 draws.

- Participation Prize Magic Ball(White)
- Fifth Prize Magic Ball(Black)
- Fourth Prize Additional Attack 1% 3 Times
- Third Prize Additional Attack 3% 3 Times
- Second Prize Additional Attack 10% 3 Times
- First Prize"—" Additional Attack 100% not included in the 3 times

(TL: there are 3 times more chances of winning in the other prizes)

There is a “—”sign in the first prize that I drew out last time.

That first prize, it probably means that there was only one stock, and there was none left since I already got it.

If so, the one I should aim for is the second prize.

I already experience the strength of the additional attack. That has more effects than what the percentage shows.

I really want to give one to Nana who attacks using numbers.

100% would be for the best, but it can't be helped since there's nothing left. I should probably pump up here, and draw 10 huh.

I thought of that, and when I was about to give the lottery tickets.

“I have come again!”

The tentacles man from before appeared.

“Yo, it’s been a while”

“Yeah”

“You’re gonna draw too?”

“It’s the last day after all. You seem like you’re going to draw a lot this time too huh?”

“Yeah, I prepared 300 tickets”

Saying that, the man took out the bundled lottery tickets. Rather than a bundle of paper, it was already like a block of paper.

Just as usual, this guy’s amazing.

“Who’s gonna draw first?”

The man asked.

I took a glance at Eleanor and Hikari who was having a heart warming scene.

“Go on first if you like. It’s better for me being last”

I said that, and pointed at Eleanor and Hikari.

They would be able to have a longer heartwarming scene if I drew later.

The man understood that, and the staff had a bitter expression again.

“Well then, without holding back”

The man passed the 300 lottery tickets.

It took time for the staff to count them all.

“Yes, exactly 300 tickets. Well then, please draw 330 times if you will”

“Yossha”

The man turned the lottery machine very quickly.

The balls also came out very quickly.

Most of them are white magic balls, and there were third price and fourth price mixed within sometimes.

“U0000000000!!”

When he had passed through a hundred, for some reason, the man’s turning speed increased.

“Awawawawa, D-Dear Customer, I can’t count it if it’s like that”

“Don’t worry! I’m counting properly. I haven’t drawn so much for show”

The man said that——and increased the speed to another level.

The balls continuously came out——and his hand finally stopped.

“It’s 329 times with this, what do you think”

“E~to.....”

The staff counted the balls.

“Yes.....it is exactly 329”

“You, you’re amazing huh”

“I had just got used to it. But, well, it really doesn’t come out huh, second prize”

“I guess so”

“Yosh, the last draw——U000!”

The man pulled the lottery machine to a turn.

*GaraGaraGara*——*Poton!*

“Congratulations! It’s the second prize!!”

“UOOOOOOO!! I got it!!!!”

The man was very happy, and left the lottery place after receiving the prizes from the staff.

Come to think of it, this may be the first time that I saw him purely happy.

There was something wrong happening every time up until now after all.

After the man had left, the staff wrote in the prizes list.

Second Prize”—— Additional Attack 10% 3 Times

“There’s no more of that too”

“Yes, the one right now was the last one”

“I see”

Well, it can’t be helped. Third prize is fine too.

For Nana, the most important part is the “additional” part after all.

20 lottery tickets, and 22 times to draw the lottery.

Looking at how the 330 times of the man went, there was a time that magic balls came out tens of times consecutively, so I prayed that it won’t be like that.

“Hikari, Eleanor, you want to draw?”

“What do you think?”

“I will～”

Hikari said with an innocent smile.

The staff casually prepared a small stepping ladder just as usual, then Eleanor and Hikari held the lottery machine’s handle together.

And then, they turned it.

*GaraGaraGara*—*GaraGaraGara*.....

The ball—did not come out.

“A-re~?”

“What happened with this”

The two said that, and looked at the staff.

The staff checked the inside of the lottery machine in a hurry.

And then, with a surprised face.

“I am sorry, it is empty inside.”

“Eh? Then that means, that guy from earlier drew all of it?”

“Yes”

“Oi, oi.....well, that should be the case if he’d draw 330 times huh”

“I am very sorry, I will replenish it quickly alright”

“Yeah”

The staff said that, and replenished the balls.

After she had replenished it, once again, Eleanor and Hikari turned the lottery machine.

*GaraGaraGara*—*Poton!*

A ball came out, the hand bell rang.

“Congratulations, it’s first prize”

“—eh?”

I got surprised, then looked at the prizes list.

The first prize that was"—"came out.

.....was it because, it was replenished?

With me confused on the side, Hikari was very happy for drawing the first prize.

JUST A GOOD WOMAN

---

In the outskirts of Roizen, in the open grasslands.

The two hundred slave soldiers were challenging me.

With “Warrior’s Eyes” that can only be wielded by people who have experienced many battles, they grouped and attacked me.

I fought back using Eleanor. Hikari was still hanging on my waist.

[They have become quite useful now]

“I think so too, if it’s like this, I can take them to battlefields”

While chatting with Eleanor, I counterattacked with the thought of training them.

It’s a mock battle after all, so I fought while holding back to not let them get severe injuries.

“Retreat once!”

When one of the slave soldiers shouted that, all of them started to fall back.

“Ohh”

I was slightly moved.

Their formation while falling back was surprisingly orderly.

[They’re quite trained]

“I think so too”

[You want to do a pursuit attack? It’s also interesting how their rear guard fairs]

“Alright”—when I nodded like that, I felt a pressure from the side.

I held Eleanor and stopped the one who was closing in.

*Kaki—n!*, the sharp sword sounds echoes.

It was the appearance of a woman holding a large sword.

“Agnes huh”

“The only one who can call me that is Nee-san”

Showing an angry expression, Agnes pushes me to a sword lock.

Looking over her shoulder, there was Io and the clerical clothed woman, Julia.

Io’s party, an orthodox party of a swordsman, magician, and priest.

After the slave soldiers, the three challenged me.

“UUUUUUUU!!”

“Just brute strength?”

“—!! There’s no way right!”

Agnes reddened her face.

She shifted her blade, and this time, she slashed horizontally using the centrifugal force with the large swords.

The sound of the swords clashing, and an impact greater than earlier.

It was an impact that made Eleanor slightly shake.

“You’re good”

“Don’t look down on me!”

Agnes slashed consecutively. Behind her, Julia supported her, and Io started to cast her spell.

Io’s party’s standard strategy. While Agnes was blocking the enemy, Julia heightens her magic powers to support, and Io would deal the finishing blow.

It's a good orthodox strategy, I can easily imagine its high results.

And furthermore, that's not all, while chanting, Io's eyes were shining.

"She's aiming for something", I thought. Thinking of her intention, I started to look forward to it.

The sounds of the swords clashing continued, I waited for that. And finally.

"Agnes!"

Julia shouted. Agnes who was fighting me used the recoil of exchanging swords to greatly fall back.

And with almost no pause——Io's magic flew.

The lightning magic fell from the sky, a hundred lightning strikes fell consecutively.

Io's great magic, her finishing magic.

I held Eleanor, and endured it.

I couldn't escape with no damage, but the damage isn't that much.

It's damage that I could endure knowing that it would come.

The one hundred strikes fell, and my smoke raised from my body.

Well then, what's next after this magic——.

"Onee-sama! Now!"

"Yes! Kakeru-san! Here I come!"

Julia's body shined, and that light goes to Io.

Soon after, Io released a magic.

"Guu!"

I felt it to the core of my body. The pain, heat, and numbness ran through me.

The consecutive blows came, a hundred lightning strikes, it's the second one!

I didn't think that the great magic that requires a long chant would come consecutively, so the magic hits my body without me being on guard.

The damage came to my body directly.

“We did it, we really did it. As expected of Nee-san”

“That’s the price of underestimating Onee-sama”

Agnes and Julia celebrated.

“Fuu～……”

I let out the breath I held in my lungs.

Even if it’s me, I still received quite some damage.

“Bluffing isn’t good for you, you know, receiving Nee-san’s Lightning Hundred——”

“That’s right, the two of them directly hit, so——”

I sprinted off, kicking the ground.

First, I closed in to Agnes, I grabbed her who wasn’t able to even react, and threw her towards Julia.

The two of them were blown away together.

This time, I closed in to Io. I placed Eleanor’s edge to her throat, and make a formal checkmate.

“As expected of Kakeru-san”

Io laughed wryly.

“It was quite effective”

“I thought that I had a chance though”

“If it’s anyone other than me, you would have a lot”

“Then, how about this?”

“What—ku!”

I was shot by magic from the side. The magic hits me off guard.

I mean, it's magic?! Who is it!

I held Eleanor and looked to the side, and in there, there was the ghost maid pair, Tania and Peggy.

The two who were floating in the air released their magic one next to the other.

I blocked them using Eleanor, and slashed.

And while I was doing that, Agnes recovered, and slashes to me with her large sword.

And furthermore, as if they were waiting just for that, the 200 slave soldiers joined the fray.

Slave soldiers, Io's party, maid ghosts.

They all attacked me at once.

“This is great, it's starting to get fun. Hikari”

[Un!]

I drew Hikari answering, and dual wield with Eleanor.

I clad myself with the dark aura coming out from the Demon Sword.

It's fun.

Io's party, the ghosts' magic, the slave soldiers' attacks.

It's fun fighting against them.

I got a little serious.

I broke through Agnes' guard and stopped Io's incantation, trampled the slave soldiers, and erased the ghosts' magic using the Demon Sword's aura.

I fought them with Eleanor and Hikari.

All of them were defeated, and when the attacks finally calmed down—that flew.

“You finally came”

I grinned, and countered with Eleanor.

The sharp sword sound was deafening.

Two blows with one slash.

The one who closed in was Nana who was clad in a platinum armor.

“I guessed you’d come”

“I will attack with all of my strength”

Nana who gained the new powers of 100% additional attack.

From how the events progressed, I guessed that she’d come.

The Demon Sword and her long sword clashes. Both of them had additional attacks, and double the times of the clashing swords, the sword sounds echoes through.

The slave soldiers, Io’s party, and maid ghosts.

All of them were watching from the side.

“You’re strong, Nana. You’d gotten stronger than before”

“I trained for the sake of Aruji!”

“Come more”

“Fu!”

Flashes full of her will—three consecutive slash.

Three lights appeared in front of me, and the six blows numbed my hand that holds Eleanor.

“Haaaaaa!!”

And after that, I started to lose leeway to think, this time, six consecutive attacks followed.

Twelve bows, I couldn’t help but use Hikari to parry.

“You’re good”

“Gratitude!”

“How about this!”

I got a little serious, I thought that if it’s Nana.

I clashed with the six consecutive slashes that came by using Eleanor to attack with the same speed, and slashed using Hikari.

*Zaku!*

The small Demon Sword touched Nana’s skin——but there wasn’t any reaction.

I was sure that I cut her, but there was no reaction at all. What does this——.

“——Melissa!”

I couldn’t help to let out a voice. Behind Nana, I saw there the appearance of the Immortal Saintess.

Melissa was in a pose of praying with her hands together, and there was blood spurting out from her body, the same place where Nana was cut.

This is unexpected, this is completely unexpected.

I couldn’t expect at all that Nana and Melissa would join forces.

It was too unexpected that——

“Haha”

I laughed out.

I kicked the ground and jumped back.

I looked at the women in front of me.

Nana.

Melissa.

Io and her party.

Maid ghosts.

Slave soldiers.

The women's eyes were shining all the same.

They were eyes that were aiming for something, after all this.

This battle, it was a fight to measure their strength——and they have eyes that show that they are seriously thinking of defeating me.

“Haha”

I laughed again, it's so fun I can't help myself.

[Otou-san, he looks happy]

[Men are idiots after all. They'd be like that with good women in front of them]

[Onee-chans, all of them are good women?]

[Hmph. You can tell just looking at this guy's attitude right?]

Eleanor and Hikari chatted inside my head.

I completely agree.

“All of you are good women”

I charged towards Nana who was in the spearhead, and towards the women.

Holding back, I'm done with that.

I wanted to know, how good women they are.

I returned advanced to the mansion.

It was a fierce battle, and I really feel fierce as well.

The density of the battle was completely different; this heightened feeling exceeds what I felt at the time when I defeated the Red Dragon.

And with that heightened feelings, I came to Althea's room.

"Althea"

"What is it?"

I reached out my hand.

With just that, Althea understood.

She took out her hand from her cloak, and held my hand.

All of the vigor from my body felt like it was being absorbed. The wrinkly hand became rejuvenated.

Great Sage Althea. A woman who becomes youthful with a thousand people's vigor, or the vigor by myself.

And finally, she stopped absorbing the vigor, and showed her face.

I was surprised.

"Althea?"

"What is it"

"That appearance"

The Althea in front of me is very beautiful.

When I first met her, I thought of her as a matchless beauty.

But the Althea right in front of me was more than that.

She was more beautiful than the time I thought of her as a matchless beauty.

".....this is my prime"

"Prime?"

"Yes. I have become rejuvenated up until now, but it was 80% of my prime. The amount of vigor was enough, but the quality wasn't so it was only up to 80%"

“The quality was enough now, that’s what you’re saying”

“Yes.....what happened?”

Althea stared at me, and asked.

“There were good women”

“Is that so”

With only that, Althea had a convinced expression.

“And so”

She said that, and stared at me furthermore.

Her eyes were asking what was next.

I wanted Althea.

Up until now, I was only giving her vigor to become rejuvenated, but I couldn’t feel anything anymore after that.

My vigor was completely sucked away.

But, right now——I still can do it.

I carried Althea to an embrace.

I took her from the room while carrying her like a princess, and went to my room.

I placed her on top of the bed, and stared straight at her.

“Althea. Tell me your name. I only know you as Althea”

I wanted to know the name of the woman that I was going to make as mine.

“I am Althea, just Althea”

“Althea.....”

“I am “just” Althea”

.....うん。わたしはオルティア。
今から、すこしのオルティアになるわ。

オルティア

数多の英雄達の陰、
またあらゆる時代の陰に
その姿ありと言われる
伝説の大賢者。

Staring at her for a while, I said.

“No, up until now, you were the Great Sage Althea. But here, from now on”

I stared straight at her eyes, and kissed her.

“I will, make you just Althea”

“Un.....”

She nodded, and Althea slowly closed her eyes.

Today is full of surprises, up to the end, I was surprised.

Althea, it was the first time.

【THE BOOK OF SIRACUZA KINGDOM】

CHAPTER 82

“FORMER” PRINCESS

---

Afternoon in the mansion's yard, I'm watching Hikari and Chibi Dragon playing under the warm sun.

The one who is with me is Althea. She had rejuvenated with my vigor right now, and she's in her peerless beauty appearance.

“How many percent is it of your prime?”

“It's 100% for my body”

“I see”

It's not after a fight, so I don't feel like doing anything after my vigor getting sucked up, but I think that's good as well, since she's beautiful.

“By the way, it seems like a war has occurred in the Siracuza Kingdom”

“He〜”

“The demon race who were active for many long years within their country became quiet, and when they moved soldiers to put an end on them completely, they were attacked by barbarians then”

“Looks troublesome”

“It is troublesome. After all, the army of Siracuza Kingdom has consecutive defeats, most of the royal family had been killed, and even if they want to make a comeback, they don't have a flag to raise, their situation is one that doesn't have the cause to fight. The four countries around it doesn't meddle but instead, they are watching closely, there are even rumors that a new country would be created”

“That really seems troublesome.....how's Delfina?”

When I asked that, Althea smiled pleasantly.

“She’s in high spirits”

“I guessed so. She said before that the best time would be just before the tree falls down”

“I’m sure that she’s having great gains because of the incident this time”, I thought.

“What would you do? Want to interfere”

“Me?”

“Yes, fishing in troubled waters. If you interfere right now, you can create a new country there, and become a king yourself”

“I can do that?”

“Yes, if it’s you”

Althea said with a smile.

Her eyes were serious, her eyes were saying that if I would say “Un”, she plans on doing something with all of her powers.

“U～n, pass. I don’t have interest, being a king or something”

“Is that so”

Althea easily withdrew. Her serious eyes softens.

And then, she brought her body to mine.

She didn’t do anything, she just let our bodies closer.

And just like that, the two of us watched Hikari with care.

Hikari made a flower crown, and puts it on Chibi Dragon’s head.

“What do you think, O-chan”

“Myu～, myu～”

Chibi Dragon tilted her head trying to see the flower crown placed in her head, and tried to touch it, flipping her short front legs.

*Zuru*, the flower crown was displaced with that, but Hikari hold it for her, and fixed it in its place.

“I can’t think that that’s the Red Dragon that spread destruction and slaughter”

“She’s spreading peace and loveliness, together with your daughter”

“Well, 90% of it is because of Hikari though”

[You doting parent]

Eleanor pointed that out as usual, but I didn’t mind.

Suddenly, I noticed that the sky became dark.

Lightning clouds came at fast speed from afar, and quickly covered the sky.

And——*Pika!* , *GoroGoroGoro!*

Lightning that was a little weaker than Io’s magic fell.

Not mentioning me, Eleanor and Althea, and Hikari also was fine.

And within that.

“Myu～! Myummyu～!”

Chibi Dragon jumped up just as high as her height, and clings to Hikari’s legs.

She buried her face, and started to tremble.

“O-chan? Are you okay, O-chan”

“Myu.....”

“Hikari is with you, it’s okay”

“Myu～, myu～”

She closed her eyes tightly, and while clinging onto Hikari, she shook her head.

“.....she spread destruction and slaughter, right”

“You can say that only loveliness remains”

“Hikari’s loveliness fell to 80% now, huh”

[The total just increased, but it’s still 90%!]

.....Eleanor is quite a doting parent as well.

Under the rain, I came to the Purosu’s Diner.

The poster girl Fiona welcomed me with a face full of smiles.

“Welcome～. Are you by yourself today, Kakeru-san”

“Yeah”

“Your order is?”

“Mountain cow’s full course”

“Oh really! Kakeru-san knows that the mountain cow’s price increased since you stopped hunting it right. A small store like ours can’t use them”

Fiona sulked with a smile.

A bright smile, I think that more than 50% of the reason that Purosu’s Diner is popular is because of this poster girl’s smile.

“Then, just give me anything”

“Yes, then, please go on to your usual seat”

I was guided, and sat in my usual seat.

I sat on the seat that was cleaned to a shine a level more than other seats.

“H-Hello, Kakeru-san”

And as if to exchange, Marie came this time.

She's Fiona's little sister and their face is similar, but she has a slightly timid personality.

"Yeah. How is it"

"Thanks to you"

While saying that, Marie took a glance on my waist.

I put Eleanor on the other side. Because Marie was once possessed by Eleanor, it seems like she still has a trauma about it right now.

Doing that, Marie seemed a little relieved, and at the same time, seemed sorry for it.

"Kakeru-san, you come a lot of times recently right"

"Yeah"

"Do you have plans on going somewhere"

"Going far away you mean? U~n, I don't think so"

I thought while looking at the ceiling.

The time that I went far away recently is when I went to Calamba to save Rica, and when I saved Aura in Comotoria.

I can warp to places I had gone to once, so I don't have any plans to go anywhere right now.

"Uhhh, the-then"

"Un?"

"We're creating a new menu, so, if it is completed, can you come and eat?"

"Alright"

"――! Thank you very much"

Marie said that, and happily went back to the back of the store.

[Come to think of it]

“Un?”

[Those sisters, you haven't made them yours yet huh. You've been acquainted with them longer than any woman you have, why]

“It's because Marie is still afraid of you of course”

[Don't make it as if it's my fault]

“Making it or whatever, it's completely your fault right. She was almost possessed to death you know”

*Pin*, I flicked Eleanor with a finger. I flicked her to the place that seemed to be her forehead.

[I told you, don't treat me so roughly. Even though you say that, don't you bring me with you when you come here]

“I'm taking you with me anywhere I go right. If I left you alone, who knows how many people would become your victim”

[Don't worry]

Eleanor's voice that seems to be proud echoes in my head.

[I'll possess all of them to death in an instant, if I fall into someone else's hands. ....especially men other than you]

“You're the Demon Sword of Relief and Trust, Eleanor after all right. Un? Did you say anything at the end?”

[I-I said that you're a bad man, you doting parent]

“Doting parent goes the same with you”

I replied with that, and watched the town through the window.

The raining town has its uniqueness, and with only the sound of the rain falling, I rather feel like its quiet.

While resting my chin on one hand, I silently stared at that.

And there, Fiona came with the food.

“Sorry to keep you waiting. Did Marie say anything? Somehow, she seems fired up though”

“I just said, I’ll eat her cooking”

“I see, it’s because of that huh”

Fiona got convinced.

“Why did she became convinced with that”, it was when I was about to ask her that.

One man entered the Purosu’s Diner.

He is drenched with his raincoat, and looked around the store while catching his breath.

While the other customers think of it strangely, Fiona approached the man.

“Welcome～. Dear Customer――are you by yourself?”

“I-I heard that Fiona-san and Marie-san is here”

“I am Fiona.....and my little sister is in the back”

“R-Really”

The man grabbed Fiona’s shoulders.

“Kya!”

“Are you really Fiona-sama?”

-sama?

“P-Please wait. It hurts”

Fiona who was being grabbed by the shoulders says that she's in pain.

I approached, and removed the man's hands.

“W-Who are you”

“For the meantime, calm down. What do you need from Fiona and Marie”

“Let go! We are going to make Fiona-sama and Marie-sama our leader of confederacy”

“Leader?”

I looked at Fiona like, “What does this mean”. Marie showed her face from the back of the store, and was clueless.

Fiona shook her head. I asked the man furthermore.

“What do you mean, explain it that we could understand.”

“I want to ask the two who have ties with the royal family, to become our leader, the army of Siracuz Kingdom's leader. The two of them are the illegitimate children of His Majesty the King”

“.....eeeeehhh!”

Fiona and Marie were surprised. It looks like they didn't know it themselves.

E~to, illegitimate children means.....

[Children that the King have with a commoner woman]

Eleanor explained.

E~to.....somehow, it became something serious?

CHAPTER 83

PRINCESS MAKER

---

“Please! Please become our leader!”

The man did a dogeza in front of Fiona and Marie. The two panicked.

The man seems desperate, and doesn't seem to be lying, but.

“Do you have a proof?”

“Yes!”

The man took out something from his waist.

It was an exalted emblem with a glance, an accessory with a gemstone.

And with that, he emphasized.

“This is the proof given to the generations of the royal family. It is an object that would react if one who has the blood of the royal family touches it”

“Fiona, Marie. For the meantime, try and hold it”

“Eh? But, Kakeru-san.....”

Fiona made a troubled face, Marie looked so troubled that she didn't know anything to say.

“He might have just mistaken you for another person, if so, that's good too. ———you will leave if she's not the person you're searching for right”

I asked the man.

“Of course!”

The man nodded. He had an expression that was saying something like, “something like that is impossible though”.

“And, so. Here”

I passed it to Fiona and Marie.

The sisters looked at each other, they were still having troubled faces.

But finally, they slowly nodded at each other, and the elder sister Fiona took it.

The instant she held it, it lit.

Not just the emblem, but Fiona’s whole body lit.

“No way.....”

“How about Marie? Try holding it”

I urged Marie. Marie timidly and cautiously received the emblem.

It lit just the same, and Marie became stunned with that result.

I took away the emblem from her hand——the light disappeared.

It won’t light with me holding it huh, just like the man says, it seems like it reacts to the blood of the royal family.

I returned it to the man.

“Fiona-sama! Marie-sama! Please!”

While holding that, the man rubbed his head on the floor in a dogeza position.

The surroundings became noisy.

The customers that were originally inside the store, and the townspeople who heard the commotion who were taking a look from outside.

Looking at this situation, they were buzzing.

“Onee-chan.....what should we do”

“Even if you ask me that.....”

The two became more and more troubled, it seems like they don’t know what to do.
Looking at them, I said to the man.

“Can you return for today”

“But——”

“Give them time to think of it carefully, time to have their resolutions. Or is it better to let them be like that, but say something like “I don’t want to do it” when the war starts?”

“Mu!”

The man raised his head and stared at me.

He probably imagined that scene that I told.

The war had progressed very well for them, and it was only a little bit until the revival of the kingdom, but there, the two hesitated.

He probably imagined that and got convinced.

The man looked at me, and looked at the Fiona sisters.

And finally, he nodded, and stood up.

“I understand. I will come again”

He said that, and left the store.

Inside the closed hours of Purosu-Diner.

It was only Fiona and Marie who was facing each other troubled and me.

After a long silence, I started the conversation.

“Fiona, do you have any clues about what it was about?”

“U～un, not at all. Marie also right”

“U-Un”

“Did your mother tell you something?”

If they are the king’s secret child, then their mother should be a person concerned.

“U～un, Okaa-san didn’t tell us about that at all. Even when she died, she only said “get along with each other, the two of you””

“I see”

[Who is the owner of this store?]

Eleanor said inside my head.

“Who’s this store’s owner?”

“I am. It inheritance from Okaa-san, and it is nominally mine”

Fiona answered.

“I see, it means, Fiona and Marie doesn’t know anything at all huh”

[Most probably, this store too, it was opened using the money taken from the king]

The possibility of that is high.

“And so, what do you want to do?”

“W-What do we want to do, you say”

“Those kinds of guys, they’re persistent”

I said it as if to scare the two.

“It’s about their wish of reviving their homeland, as long as you don’t say a proper reason, he’d probably beg you forever”

“No way, we will be troubled. Our lifestyle, and, our store. Right, Marie”

“.....”

“Marie?”

Marie wouldn’t answer, Fiona looked at her little sister strangely.

And that Marie, she was staring straight at me, not her sister.

“What is it”

“Does Kakeru-san.....like princesses?”

“Un?”

What is it suddenly.

“There are a lot of princesses around Kakeru-san right”

“Around me?”

On what range is she saying that.

[Of course its within your harem]

That huh. If so, there’s quite some of them.

Helene from Mercouri.

Aura from Comotoria.

She’s not a princess but the queen, Rica from Calamba.

And also, Nana was called as the barbarian’s princess I think.

Un, there’s a lot of princesses I guess.

“I-If so. If Kakeru-san likes princesses, I-I will”

“Marie? What are you saying?”

“I, I want to do my best for Kakeru-san”

“That.....I can understand, but, it’s too dangerous. It’s a war you know”

“Even so, I don’t care”

Fiona gasped, Marie looked straight at me.

[What a good girl, and what a bad man. It looks like she’s planning to be a flag-bearer just for you]

That seems to be so.

That braveness of her was very cute, I saw her in the most loveliest way up until now.

“You are sure, Marie”

“Yes!”

I got it.

I understand her resolution.

“Then, I’ll lend you my strength”

“Kakeru-san will?”

“I can’t think that there’s a lot of soldiers left within those guys who are on the brink of annihilation. There’s no way that I’d let Marie go and die right. I’ll lend you my strength”

Nana and the slave soldiers, Io’s party, the maid ghosts.

And——me, myself.

With this much, it should be enough.

[Well, roughly a military strength equal to a few thousand soldiers]

“Kakeru-san.....”

Marie stared at me with moist eyes.

I stared back at her.

“.....then, I will go too”

Fiona said.

When I looked at her, she had a resolute expression that was a little different from Marie’s

“Onee-chan will go too?”

“Yes, I will. ....I should’ve been the first one”

After declaring that, she whispered something.

What first?

Well, that doesn’t matter.

“Fiona, Marie”

I stared at the two, and while holding Eleanor’s hand, I declared.

“I, I will make you princesses”

When I declared that, the two’s faces became flushed in red.

A KING'S DIGNITY

---

Inside the mansion, I called Nana, Io, and Delfina in my room.

I sat with my whole body on the sofa, and the three is facing me.

“And, because of that, I’m going to take the slave soldiers with me. Nana, how much could the slave soldiers be used right now?”

“From last time, after being “taken care” of Aruji, their strength increased by much. Especially the ten-man captain’s growth is great. Even if Aruji does not lead them, they could be used to a certain extent”

“I got it, you did a good job. Normally, Nana will lead them to battle, that would change in any case according to plan, but normally, I will send you to the next dangerous place I will go”

“Understood”

Nana nodded. Having a strong will as a martial artist, she’s the type who’d get happy being relied on like that.

The instant she understood the meaning of the words “the next dangerous place”, her eyes shined.

And after tapping her shoulder, this time, I looked towards Delfina.

“I’ll leave the collection of supplies to you. Especially the rations. Is advance payment good? Or paying after better?”

“If it’s Kakeru-sama, paying later on is alright. Rather than that, by rations you mean, the guards for the transport corps will be provided by me?”

Transport corps.....supply troops huh.

“No, there’s no need for that”

I shook my head.

“The slave soldiers would always bring only the minimum amount of things with them. Let me think.....to be sure, rations for three days. After that, you will supply, and I’ll take them using warp”

Delfina’s eyes widened looking at me, then smiled coquettishly.

“What a crafty person. To do something that no one else could do so easily. A corps that doesn’t need supply troops, that’s unprecedented desu wa”

“It would a bit of an advantage right”

“It would not be only “a bit””

She said that with a mischievous smile, and leans on me.

Her gestures are the sexiest and mature within my women.

“I could only feel bad to those who become your enemy”

“Come to think of it, you, you were doing business with them right?”

“Yes, I did”

“Past tense? Why”

Delfina looked up to me, and made a coquettish smile again.

“I have pulled off at the same time that Fiona and Marie’s identity was proven to be like that. It was obvious that Kakeru-sama would interfere after all”

“Even so, you pulled out so easily. Didn’t you say that before that the best time is just before the tree falls down”

“Yes, that is why. At that point, I have sold very well. I have already taken all the good parts”

“You, what a good woman”

“I am fortunate, desu wa”

As expected of a woman who has raised wealth equal of that of a kingdom.

Her shrewdness is quite good.

That is why, I could leave things to her without worries.

“I’ll leave everything to you. I’m the one who would carry it, so you don’t need to think of preserved foods. It should be fresh, and would give us strength”

“I understood”

Delfina nodded.

After I got away from her, this time, I looked towards Io.

“Io, that two, did they have humans as opponents before?”

“They do. We sometimes accept bandits subjugation quests together after all”

“Then, come with me. There might be a turn for your great magic. I’ll take you with me as an option”

“Un, I got it. But, a turn for my magic, would there be such a thing”

“You, what’s the casting range of your lightning magic? How far would it reach?”

“Eh? Probably.....around that tree over there, I think?”

Io pointed.

At a far away place, a tree. The distance from here is about a kilometer.

“That’s enough. It will be up to you during points where a focused attack is needed, you’d come with us while reserving your magic powers normally”

“Un, I got it!”

Io said that, and linked her arms with mine.

She clings her body towards me with a different way with Delfina. It was like a small animal that plays, she's the type who would come with all that she have.

"I, I will do my best for Kakeru-san okay!"

She's like a puppy.

Thinking of that, she came to me like pushing herself onto me, becoming my disciple or something.

Compared to those times, she had become very reliable, but this part of hers haven't changed.

"Yeah, you can. That's why I'll bring you with me"

"――un! I'll do my best!"

Io was delighted.

Lastly, I turned towards Miu who have entered the room late.

"Come here, Miu"

"Yes, Master"

I hugged the animal-eared maid bringing her on the top of my lap, and *MofuMofu*-d her.

I *MofuMofu*-d her as much as I could. I'd become busy from now on, so as an advance, I *MofuMofu*-d her.

"Hawa～....."

Anyways, *MofuMofu*.

“Miu”

“Hawa～.....”

“I’ll leave everything to you while I’m not in the mansion”

“E～to, how much of it, Master?”

“Everything”

I answered immediately.

“The mansion’s maintenance of course, things like, merchants, nobles, or messengers coming from other countries. I’ll leave everything to you except about Siracuza. Do it well”

“Including messengers from other countries?”

Miu was surprised.

“Yeah. I’ll leave it to you”

“Will I be able to do that.....”

Miu said that, but I know.

She’s someone who’s very skilled.

Originally, my order when I bought Miu was “a good maid”.

And Miu who come then, wasn’t “good”, she was a “super good” maid.

How good she is if you ask, I intentionally didn’t hire a new maid to keep a watch on her, but she’s an amazing maid, that up until now, she was able to do the things in the mansion by herself.

The more amazing part there, is that she doesn’t notice it herself.

Just like now, she would worry like “can I really do it”.

It’s amazing that she haven’t noticed that she’s amazing.

“Anyways, I’ll leave it to you. If you do good enough, I’ll *MofuMofu* you all you want when I come back”

“――! I understood!”

Her ears raised like *Pikon!*, and answered very strongly.

With this, the preparation for departing is finished.

The next day, I left the town of Roizen.

The carriage carries the two leading part, Fiona and Marie, and the slave soldiers and Io's party surrounds them to protect.

And, first, I will take the two to the base of the retaliation army.

[This should be the world's safest place]

“What's that suddenly, Eleanor”

[What, don't mind me, I just thought that inside that carriage is the safest place in this world. There is me and Hikari. Nana Kanou is also present. The level would fall very much, but there is also Io and her friends. If something happens, the slave soldiers could be used]

“I see”

[A-re? What about Otou-san?]

Hikari who became a Demon Sword, thought about it strangely that Eleanor didn't mention my name.

[If I call out this guy's name, it would be already over after all]

[.....?]

[I mean that, just with this guy, it's already the world's safest place]

[――I see! Un, that's right, it's super safe with Otou-san around]

We marched while I'm hearing the heartwarming conversation of the mother and daughter, Eleanor and Hikari, inside my head.

In fact, just as Eleanor has said, I made it as safe as I could.

Suddenly, the slave soldiers got noisy.

"W-What happened, Kakeru-san—ah!!"

Hearing the noise, Fiona raised the carriage's curtain, and took a peek.

And just as she did that, there was smoke rising from faraway, and a group was heading towards us.

From how they look from afar, they seem to be a band of thieves.

Their numbers are also quite a lot. On top of that, they look like they're planning to attack us.

"W-What should we do, Kakeru-san"

"Don't mind it?"

I took a glance at the thieves, and answered as if it was nothing.

"D-Don't mind it, you say, no matter how you look at them, they're thieves right, we should do something"

"With that much, there's no need for me to move"

"Eh?!"

Fiona got surprised.

From a little far away distance, I heard Nana's dignified voice.

"Slave soldiers. The first platoon to the fourth platoon, head with me to the front. Fifth to the tenth, surround them to the sides. The remaining, protect the carriage with your life"

She ordered without panicking, and Nana strikes.

From the start till the end, I didn't need to say anything to Nana. Nana also didn't ask anything.

A situation of this much, there's no need for me to take part—or rather, it's a situation where I don't even need to take command.

Half of the slave soldiers annihilated the thieves, and the remaining half of the slave soldiers protected the carriage while advancing.

“Kakeru-san.....”

“Amazing.....”

Fiona, and Marie who peeks by her side.

The two looked at me with eyes full of admiration more and more.

CHAPTER 85

A MAN'S RELIABILITY

---

In the night, outdoors.

After we have marched for the day, we camped in an appropriate place Nana decided. All of the slave soldiers erected the tents, and Nana and Io, Fiona and Marie, and Hikari and me, spent the night inside my magic cottage.

I went outside the magic cottage, and stretched.

“Well then, what should we do now”

[What do you mean by “what should we do”? Are you not going to sleep inside?]

“There’s Fiona and Marie. I think it’s inappropriate”

[What are you holding back to]

“Post paid, rather than pre paid. It was like that up until now right”

[I see]

Eleanor got convinced.

Helena, Rica, Aura.

All of the women that I have been with, all of them are “post paid”.

And it’s just the same right now.

She might’ve had doubts if it was only with words, but I have already shown it with my actions, so Eleanor got convinced immediately.

[Come to think of it, I didn’t have the right time to ask this, but, which one will you make a queen]

“Un?”

[The elder sister or the younger sister, I’m asking which of them you’re going to make as a queen]

“You’re quite in a hurry huh. Already talking about after we had won”

[I am]

The voice that I could hear inside my head, I heard Eleanor scoffed.

[I am not letting a man that does not have that little confidence use me after all]

“That’s quite some words”

But, well, I’m don’t think that I’m going to lose.

I’ll slash through all of the hindrances, I will restore those sisters’ country.

I have decided that I’ll do that, I decided that I will do that, surely.

“Well, thinking about it normally, it would be Fiona, I guess”

[I am thinking that Marie would be the better one]

“Why?”

[Although it was only for a short time, she has held me. It’s, the Demon Sword Eleanor’s blessing]

“Blessing, you say”

*Pi~n*, I flicked Eleanor’s handle with a finger.

“You almost killed her, how shameless for you to say that”

[That’s what a Demon Sword is, right?]

“Alright, alright”

While joking with Eleanor, I walked around the camping site at random.

The slave soldiers’ tent is large ones that a small platoon of 20 people could go inside, and some of the lights are still up.

And when I passed through one of the tents that was a little bit away from the others, women came out from there.

Twenty of them, they went out one next to the other, and lined up in front of me.

And one of them stepped forward, and saluted me.

“Good evening! Your Excellency”

“Yeah, good evening. ....you are?”

I remembered that I didn’t know her name, so since it’s a good opportunity, I asked.

“Sir, I am the First Platoon Captain, Nikki Cephalis, sir!”

“I see. You haven’t rested yet huh”

“Yes sir! We were waiting for Your Excellency”

“Waiting for me?”

Do they need something from me.

“All of the First Platoon, we shall take care of Your Excellency for tonight. We have been waiting for that, sir!”

“.....oh”

For an instant, I didn’t understand what it was about.

Being told, something like “take care” or “tonight”, I thought she means to do it, but I denied those thoughts.

However, the meaning that I could only think of with “taking care for the night” was the sexual meaning.

After all, the ones who would “take care” of me are all slaves, and women.

“I’ll confirm it”

“Yes sir!”

“By taking care of me, you mean it as “doing it” with me right”

“Sir yes sir!”

“Why?”

“Because our First Platoon was the first one among the platoons to completely agree, sir!”

“No, that’s not what I meant, it’s.....”

“Sir, It’s because all of us are longing for Your Excellency!”

Nikki said without pausing.

And as if to show that there were no lies with her words, the 19 women behind her had the same eyes.

They were staring at me, they stared with feverish eyes.

Their eyes were similar to the eyes of the women I embraced just before we did it.

[What a huge difference to the time when they were just bought]

I also think so.

The 200 slave soldiers.

Was it because of their fate, after I asked Delfina has collected them and they sent to me, they looked at me with eyes of hatred.

And now, it’s completely different, their faces show longing.

And the cause for that——it doesn’t matter.

There are women who want to be embraced in front of me, that is already enough.

“I got it. Should we do it inside the tent?”

“Sir yes sir!”

Nikki answered as a representative, and all of the slave soldiers made a happy face.

I entered the tent, and Nikki and the others followed me inside.

“Good movements”

I didn’t miss it.

All of the women that followed me inside are in high spirits, but they did not have negligence.

As if each of them has their own work to do, ones that would enter first, ones that would close the tent, and lastly, ones that would stand in guard.

Their movements show they were trained well as a group.

The women that were praised showed expressions of happiness.

“It is the result of Nana-sama’s training, sir!”

Nikki as the platoon leader, answered as a representative.

“I see. I should praise Nana later then”

I said that, and looked at the women once again.

“I don’t know what training you had with Nana, but the main part of it, she should’ve taught you to obey my orders”

“Sir yes sir!”

“Then, I shall order this, this is an order that you should follow as long as you’re alive”

When I said that, the women flinched.

It looks like, they would still be on guard, because I told them it’s an order they should follow as long as they’re alive.

“Stop that way of speaking while I’m embracing you. I don’t want to embrace you as soldiers, I want you as a woman”

“.....”

All of them were stunned. They had faces that they did not expect that order at all.

“What? Are you disobeying my order?”

“S-Sir no sir. Not at all s—”

At the middle of her words, Nikki realized.

“—we do not. We will happily obey”

After an instant, she changed her tone and way of speaking to a soft, feminine one.

“Good girl. I’ll embrace you first”

“—yes!”

I pulled Nikki who was delighted to my body to an embrace.

“Nikki”

“Yes”

“Tell me what you want me to do”

“What I want.....”

“I’ll grant your wish. Tell me”

Nikki thought for a while, flushed her cheeks, and answered while covering her face.

“I-I want to be like a girl.....p-please be gentle”

“Leave it to me”

I touched all of Nikki.

Sweetly, gently. I pushed Nikki as if she was a frail, weak girl.

The other women who saw their captain like that had their eyes sparkling with expectations.

Outside the tent, I wore my pants, and went out with my upper body naked.

[This is a new record]

“n? Ahh, you mean by the number of people huh”

I nodded, well, it’s the first time for me to take care of 20 people at once.

20 of them with different types, on top of that, I made them say their wishes, and granted them.

It’s a little different to how I did it usually.

[This is also a first for me. A man who would take care of 20 women at once]

“Didn’t those Conqueror or Heroes did it”

[They couldn’t. You are number one, rejoice]

“I see”

[Even so, aren’t you so kind, to think that you have granted all of their wishes]

“I just felt like doing it. Since they have asked for it that much, I just thought, I should give them good memories”

[You didn’t hesitate as well]

“Why would I hesitate?”

[Normally, one would, though]

Eleanor said that, but I don’t understand it really.

There’s a woman who wants it, and I have 777 times vigor that could answer them.

There shouldn’t be any reason to hesitate.

[Well, whatever. If that is so, how about you treat me gentler and kindly? You are the only one in this world that would treat me cynically]

“That, you should give up”

[Mu!]

I felt Eleanor’s dissatisfaction.

“You’re the only one who would not get destroyed when I bring out all that I have. The other women would be quickly destroyed if I do not treat them kindly”

I really think like that.

A cheat that I received when I teleported to this world, an ability that would multiply everything by 777 times.

And if I use the power that I gained because of that cheat, various weapons would immediately get destroyed.

It’s the same with women.

Even Nana, even Melissa, in the end, they couldn’t resist my whole strength.

The only thing that could endure it is in my waist, it is only the Legendary Demon Sword, Eleanor.

[H-Hmph. Of course. I am the Legendary Demon Sword Eleanor. I am not an existence that would be broken by a human weakling]

Reluctantly but, Eleanor understood me.

She was only reluctant for an instant, her voice immediately returned to as usual.

[Alright. Show me that you can use me greater than this. Within the humans, it is only you who can completely use me]

“We’re both only ones, huh”

[I guess so]

“Then, I’ll make it so. First, let’s bring back Siracuza”

[Umu. With you and me, and the two hundred soldiers]

Eleanor's happy laughing voice echoed inside my head.

I do not feel bad.

Together with Eleanor, with the small strength of 200, we will revive a country.

It is challenging, I got fired up.

ACCUMULATED FORTUNE

---

A few days later, we arrived at the destination.

The 200 slave soldiers that guarded Fiona and the rest, it just shows how Nana trained them, their movements are very uniform.

Is it because their equipments were complete, although they were all women, they even look imposing.

Compared to that, the Siracuza's encampment that we arrived at was the worst.

Describing them with a few words, they're remnants of a defeated army.

Their swords broke, arrows run out, their eyes show no life as if it was all over.

They scattered here and there, laying on the ground.

Their numbers are far more than the 200 slave soldiers, but they're a hopeless group that wouldn't show any piece of morale.

[It's a typical look of remnants of an army]

"I think so too"

[It's like what you call it again, was it being on the top of a chopping board. Another one is, they're just bait waiting to get eaten]

Those words are quite fitting.

Their numbers are huge, but if it's like this, even Nana alone.....no, at worst, even just Io's party could wall all over them.

They're just that hopeless.

We reached deep within the encampment, and stopped marching.

There's the biggest tent there, and a man wearing a general-like clothes welcomed us.

It's a middle-aged man in his forties, this one looks a little more decent.

I made a sign towards the slave soldiers.

The first platoon captain, Nikki, raised the carriage's curtain.
Fiona and Marie went off the carriage with worried expressions.

"We have been waiting for you"

"Uhm....."

Fiona was puzzled.

"First, please take this your highness"

The man kneeled, and reached out an emblem accessory.
It's the magic item that confirms the bloodline of the royal family that I saw before.
Fiona received that, the accessory released lights.

——ohhhhhh!!

Sparse cheers rose from the remnants of the army.
It looks like because a flag-bearer that has the blood of the royal family appeared, they had a little hope.

"Wait!"

Suddenly, a soldier appeared with a shout.
His appearance is the worst even within the remnants of the army, his whole body is covered with bandages, and they are dyed red.
His gaze is sharp, and glared at Fiona and Marie showing his anger.

"I-I will not accept that!"

He shouted with a trembling voice, he pointed the edge of his weapon, the spear, towards the two.

“Blasphemy! What are you doing!”

The general shouted.

“Shut up! I’ve had enough of fighting! In the first place, why does a princess come this late! Nothing will happen even if one or two of them appeared anyways! It’s already over, it’s already over for this country!”

“What are you saying!”

“I will not die for something like that, I will not charge to my death!”

“You bastard.....”

The general had popping veins on his temples.

He’s enraged, well, I get how he feels.

His long awaited blood-kin of the royal family finally came, and when he feels something like “Shall we fight!”, some nagging bastard came.

And to that general’s anger, a soldier that should’ve faltered raised his emotions higher.

“Shut up! If it’s like this, I don’t care anymore! I’ll kill them and I’ll die!”

The soldier charged towards Fiona.

“It can’t be helped——”, I placed my hand on Eleanor.

[Wait, leave it to me here]

Eleanor said.

An instant later, a dark aura rose from my body.

That was a higher density aura compared to up until now.

The aura moved like tentacles, and entangled the soldier’s body.

“I-I can’t move”

The aura restrained him tightly, he can’t move at all.

I looked at Eleanor.

“What’s this”

[My power]

“You didn’t have this up until now though”

[You’re going to use me completely right? Try controlling this, if you can, you will see something greater than 100%]

She said more than 100% so easily.

Well, whatever, it’s something that I said first.

As she wish.....I will use her completely.

I took a deep breath, and sent my consciousness to Eleanor’s dark aura.

I imagined.....I was clad in it, as if I wore a jacket.

I put my arms inside that jacket, and moved it.

“Ga.....ha.....”

I strangled the man using the aura.

The man whose neck is being strangled struggled.

And while doing that, I approached the man.

I pinched the tip of the spear that he’s holding, *Paki!*, I broke it, and threw it away.

The surroundings got noisy because of what happened.

“What is that.....”

“Is he even human?”

“I know that, that’s the Demon Sword Eleanor”

“You’re saying, it’s the Demon Sword Wielder?”

Mixed with different kinds of voices, I could feel their fear and awe.

While restraining the man with the Aura, I talked to the general.

“I am Yuuki Kakeru. I came here to make the two, Fiona and Marie queens”

“I-I am Theo Customas. I thank you, Your Excellency Baron Yuuki”

He called him like that. It’s just right since I’m a baron in Siracuza, so I guess he knows about me.

If so, that makes it much easier.

“This is my suggestion. It’s going to get troublesome if this kind of guy appears again from now on. I’ll do the rest, so release those guys who don’t want to fight”

“But then, the numbers of soldiers will.....”

“I said, I’ll do the rest”

I said that, and consciously moved the dark aura.

The aura spread, its area doubled.

“It wouldn’t even take me five minutes to kill all of these guys. Numbers this much, it doesn’t matter if they’re around or not”

“.....I understood, I will obey”

Theo said that, and sent orders.

We entered Theo’s tent, and Fiona and Marie sat on the highest seat.

Theo approached the two, and kneeled in front of them.

“U-Uhmm——”

Because of the sudden thing, Fiona panicked, and almost stood up.

I stopped her by raising my hand, and gestured with my eyes.

Fiona sat down again.

While kneeling, Theo greeted them with how they do at Siracuza, and stood up again.

“I am very delighted that Your Highness the Princess has come. This Theo Customas, he shall use his life to revive our Kingdom”

“U-Un. Please do”

“Ha!”

Seeing there was a pause, I stepped between them.

“What’s the current state of the war?”

“Embarrassingly, the Siracuza army is everyone that is here. Right now, all of the Siracuza’s territory is conquered by the Barbarian King Thioza. According to rumors, he has also sent messengers to the four other kingdoms”

Messengers? What for.

[He probably wants to say “I conquered Siracuza’s whole territory, let’s get along from now on”, or something similar to that]

I see.

“If the four other kingdoms have approved, no, even if they acquiesce. If they were recognized as a country, we shall lose all our hope on reviving Siracuza. First, to repeal that, we must show that the main army of Siracuza remains, we must counterattack somewhere”

“Rather than that, I have a better way”

“Just wait”

I left everyone, and warped.

From the small tent in the remote region of Siracuza, I warped to Calamba Kingdom Capital, Meteora.

I caught a maid that I know and asked Rica’s whereabouts, and from there, I warped to the queen’s room.

And there was Rica.

“Kakeru!”

Seeing me, Rica stood up with full of happiness, she ran to me with small strokes.

“Did you come to play? I know! I have chosen the girls for Kakeru, will you meet them?”

“I’ll do that later.....I’ll come again tonight. Rather than that, I came today because I have something to ask of you”

“Ask me?”

“How much do you know about Siracuza?”

The instant I asked that, Rica’s expression changed.

From an expression that’s like a puppy dog wagging her tail to her owner’s return, to a queen’s face full of dignity.

“Thioza has almost conquered the whole territory of Siracuza, in the near future, a messenger shall come to our country”

“I see, if you know that much, then it makes it easier”

“You mean by that is?”

“I decided to go with the remnants of Siracuza. The royal family there has some survivors, so I would be supporting them. That's why——”

“I got it”

While I was speaking, Rica said.

“I will try to buy you some time. Let's see. I should tell them something like, “Since there are still survivors of the royal family, come again after you pull out all the roots”.”

Rica understood quickly, and her suggestion is the best one that fits my situation, she completely believes on me.

I kissed Rica.

“You, you're really a good woman”

“O-Oh.....”

Rica looked down, her cheeks were flushed.

“So I'll go back to make some progress——I'll come again tonight”

“Yes!”

Rica got very happy.

I brought the same story to Helen and Aura.

The two of them both readily consented just like Rica did.

For the meantime, this should be enough to buy some time.

PATH OF DEMON SWORD

---

After going around the places once, I returned by warping, and explained it to Theo. Theo was so surprised.

“That.....is that true?”

“Uhm.....if it’s about Helen-sama and Iris-sama, I can guarantee. I have met them a few times, and.....it felt like they would listen to what Kakeru-san asks for”

Fiona said while timidly raising her hand.

“Teresia’s twin flowers did?! If that is true.....”

“I’m telling you it’s true”

Theo held his breath, and started to murmur to himself with a serious face.

“Mercouri, Calamba, and Comotoria.....three of the four kingdoms bought us some time, huh. If that is so.....”

“For the meantime, I told all of them to ask for a condition of[annihilate the remaining remnants of the kingdom’s army]. There wouldn’t be any problems as long as we don’t get wiped out”

“Why did you make such a condition”

Theo thought of it strangely.

“Then.....it’s okay now right”

Marie quietly said.

With eyes that are full of trust towards me.

“If Kakeru-san’s with us.....we would never get wiped out”

I made that condition with that in mind after all.

Theo recovered from his surprise, and got impressed next.

“However.....to make three of the four kingdoms do that in such a short time.....as expected of Goshaku-sama. I admire you very much”

Rather than having five noble titles, it’s my private connections though, well, whatever.

[Thinking about it carefully, you substantially have gained three-fifths of the world]

I don’t care about that.

I would be happy if I could make a harem with the three-fifths of all the good women, both I don’t really care much about territories.

“So then, where should we attack first. I asked Rica and the rest to say that, but if we stay here, we won’t get even recognized as the remnants of Siracuza. We need to appeal that there are Fiona and Marie, the survivors of the royal family. We should attack and occupy some place”

“That is very true. Well then”

Theo called his subordinate, and asked to bring a map.

“Tomorrow night, we will attack the town called Gihon”

I called Nana and Io, and told that to the two.

“Understood”

“Why is it at night?”

“It’s because, we have fewer soldiers. The remnant army is useless, so we’re going to fight the first battle with a little more than 200 people. So, the best way is to attack at night”

“It was like that”

Io got convinced.

Having a strong characteristic of being an adventurer, she had a face that looked like she didn’t understand anything at all, but she follows what I would say obediently.

“So, we would split into three. First, Io”

“Un”

“It looks like that town is protected by some decent walls, so I’ll ask you to destroy it using your magic. I will lend you my ability. Even if it’s only for one shot without another, I want a big one”

“I got it. I’ll do my best!”

“Nana”

“Ha!”

“Enter through the walls that Io destroyed. I’ll leave all the 200 slave soldiers to you”

“Understood”

“I’ll leave all the judgments according to the situation to you. It’s just as usual. If you think that things would get worst, you can fall back if you need to. Don’t push yourself”

“Ha!”

“What will Kakeru-san do then?”

“I will——”

Night time, in Gihon's outskirts.

I was in a 2-kilometer distance from the town.

“They're drinking huh”

I looked at the town of Gihon with eyesight multiplied 777 times.

I heard that there were strong walls surrounding it, but seeing it in person, it was very similar to castle walls.

There are soldiers guarding the top of the walls, but they aren't being cautious, and they are like partying with booze.

[They're intoxicated]

“Well, they should be. They flipped the kingdom upside down, and just in the brink of making another”

[Is making a kingdom that amazing?]

Hikari asked. Since it's just before the battle, I'm carrying Hikari in her Demon Sword form.

“Well that's.....it's amazing right”

[Why are you asking me]

“No, well, I don't really know. On the other hand, you did it a few times right?”

[I wonder. Kingdoms.....I made a lot of them, and destroyed a lot of them so I don't really remember]

That much, huh.

“You’re really, something huh”

[Not as much as you]

“I’m just a normal guy”

[There’s no way that a normal guy would move three kingdom’s princesses and queens with just a word of his]

[Otou-san isn’t normal?]

[Umu, as far as I know, he is on the highest level of being not normal]

[I see～. Otou-san’s so amazing]

“Hey you, don’t teach Hikari such weird things”

I flicked Eleanor with a finger.

The Demon Sword cried”Chiri～n”.

Is it because I’m doing it quite a lot recently, I learned how to make a good sound.

In fact, a nice, harp-like sound was created.

While we were chatting like that, a light flashed on the other side of Gihon.

A gigantic lightning fell down to the town. A few seconds later, sounds of destruction followed.

[It started huh]

“Let’s go”

[Ahh]

[Un!]

I ran towards Gihon together with the mother and daughter Demon Swords, Eleanor and Hikari.

I sprinted slashing through the wind.

I closed the 2 kilometer distance in almost an instant.

I saw the soldiers on top of the outer walls panicking. They were panicking not because of me, but because of the lightning.

I kicked the ground and jumped.

I jumped as if wings spread from my back, flying higher than the walls.

“O-Oi, look”

“Eh?!—guwaa!!”

As soon as I landed on top of the wall, I slashed towards the nearest soldier with a wide swing, and stabbed the heart of the soldier beside him.

“E-Enemy attack, enemy attack!!!”

A soldier that was a little far away shouted with a loud voice. A little later, drums were sounded.

And then, arrows and magic attacked me at once.

Countless arrows that fell as if it was rain, and balls of fire that was like they were shot from several cannons.

“Their reaction’s good”

[Although they were like that at first, they’re still strong men who won the war up until now]

“I see”

While getting convinced, I swung Eleanor and Hikari.

I blocked the arrows, slashed through magic, and mercilessly split the soldiers who attacked into two.

A mountain of corpses was made very quickly.

“W-What the heck is this guy”

“He’s alone, he’s just one, ri-ridiculous”

The soldiers trembled.

They stayed far away, and didn't attack.

We just looked at each other's sides.

"There's no end like this"

[You just need to attack then?]

"I guess so"

I charged strength into the two Demon Swords, and released a dark aura.

An aura whose density is incomparable to up until now. That aura extended and strangled the nearest soldier.

The soldier struggled and let go of his spear.

*Gugugugu*—*Boki*.

The bone that reached its limits echoed, it broke.

I removed the aura, the soldier fell down just like trash.

"This is very convenient"

[I told you not to treat me as a convenient one!]

"It's weaker than doing it directly though"

[On top of that, you're shameless enough to complain! Isn't that natural! You should know that there's no way that my aura cannot exceed myself!]

[Ne~, ne~, Otou-san, can you do that to Hikari too]

"Un? Hikari, huh. If it's with Hikari....."

I thought a bit, and did it consciously.

I took out an aura from Hikari with the same way, and wore it as if it was clothes.

The dark aura's hand, combined with Eleanor's, the image I had with it became four.

I reached out with the four hands, and strangled new enemy soldiers.

“Hikari’s so amazing”

[Say that it’s convenient!]

Eleanor protested. I imagined that she had teary eyes.

“Yes, yes, Eleanor’s soo amazing too”

[Don’t mock me! Also, I’m not talking about that!]

“Yes, yes”

I felt that she was almost crying, so I left it with just that.

“Did he say Eleanor?”

“Demon Sword, Eleanor?!!”

“I-I don’t wanna die!!”

The enemy soldiers ran away.

The fear spread as soon as I spoke Eleanor’s name.

[Waa～, Okaa-san’s so amazing～]

[Fufun!]

Eleanor was so proud. You won’t think that she was on the verge of her tears just a moment ago.

She showed her good part to her daughter, and got into a very good mood.

And on top of that, she was like “Ehen～”, and started to talk.

[Listen to this, Hikari. In battlefields, you need to spread fear and awe to your enemies just like this. That is the way of the Demon Sword]

[Un!]

[You extended the aura earlier right? It's an application of that.....there's this way, that it would be easier to possess the enemy's heart and mind, lowering the difficulty to destroy them]

"Hey, hey, don't teach such weird things to Hikari"

I stopped Eleanor while chasing after the enemy soldiers that were running around.

[It is not a weird thing, it is the true form of the Demon Sword, I am just teaching her the way. Is there a problem if Hikari would become very Demon Sword-ish gathering fear from everywhere?]

".....nope"

Come to think of it, there's none, there's none at all.

Rather, it might be better like this.

[Ne~, ne~, Okaa-san. What should I do to make Otou-san the one who's famous?]

[This guy?]

[Un, it's cool to be like Okaa-san right now, but I'm Otou-san's Demon Sword, so I'll be sooo happy if it's Otou-san who gets famous~ ]

With an innocent voice, she surprised me and Eleanor.

Not having a "Demon Sword Wielder", but "Kakeru's Demon Sword" huh.

".....what a good girl"

[Of course she is, she's my daughter]

"She's my daughter too"

[Too bad for you though, she looks rather similar to me]

"Ku!"

She mentioned such a thing. I really mind that.

Both her appearance as a sword and as a human, Hikari looks like her mother. She's super cute so it doesn't matter, but.....it's so annoying when Eleanor mentions it like this.

I slashed all of the soldiers on top of the wall.

After taking care of most of them, I went down to the town.

A group of enemy soldiers that has the same appearance with those guys from earlier was running towards my direction.

Behind them, I saw Nana chasing after them.

"Piss off!!"

The man in the vanguard charged with a loud voice.

Is it because they're running away from Nana due to fear, they were crazed and had blood-shot eyes.

He raised his sword.....but I swung Eleanor first, he was split into two from the top of his head.

"H-Hiii!!"

"F-Forgive us!!"

The soldiers from behind that threw away their weapons one next to the other, and dogeza-d, sticking their heads to the ground.

A moment later, Nana and the slave soldiers.

"Aruji....."

"Un, what happened. Making such an unusual troubled face"

"Actually.....the person right now that Aruji cut into two, that guy was their commander"

"Eh?! This guy is?"

I looked at the “two things” that fell on the ground.

Come to think of it, he looks different from other soldiers, he’s wearing better clothes.

How can I say this, it’s like he’s the boss of some bandits.

“In times like this, raising the commander’s head up high would end the battle, but.....”

Ahh, I saw things like that happens in wars in mangas and movies.

Something like Mr. A has been defeated or something, and it takes away the morale of the enemy.

“Head.....”

I looked at that thing that was split into two. It was beautifully cut vertically.

I found the reason why Nana was having such a troubled face.

“Well, just do something about it”

“Understood”

There’s no doubt that we defeated them though.

After that, it was a little tiring, but the battle has ended.

CHAPTER 88

HUMAN'S STRONGEST

---

After the town of Gihon was occupied, Siracuza's remnant army that Theo leads entered the town.

And those guys were welcomed by the townspeople.

They were welcomed by all, from the elders to the children.

I'm calling them a remnant army, but the flag that those guys are raising is the flag of Siracuza Kingdom.

For the people, it would look like the regular army chased away the barbarians.

It couldn't be helped that they would get welcomed, huh.

Inside a government administration building, I came to see Theo.

"Your Excellency"

Theo who was giving orders to his subordinates while sitting on a chair stood up.

After waiting for his subordinates to go out, I spoke to Theo.

"How's it, did it go well?"

"It is originally our kingdom's town after all. Even though it was occupied by the enemy, it has not yet reached 10 days, and although there were damages caused by plundering, that instead made it easier for us"

We were welcomed for recapturing the town because they plundered huh, I see.

"Is that so. With this, we cleared the minimum requirement huh"

“Yes. We are planning on sending declarations towards those who have scattered all over the kingdom”

“I’ll leave those things to you. Where will we attack next?”

“I am thinking of deciding according to the reactions from places in the kingdom”

“I got it, just tell me if you decided”

“Yes”

Being seen off by Theo, I left that place.

I came to the outskirts of Gihon.

There are more than ten tents erected.

The regular army soldiers are using Gihon’s barracks, so my subordinates the slave soldiers are staying here.

“Sir, thank you for your hard work, sir!”

Nikki who was just outside saluted to me.

She’s a woman of mine that I embraced, but since it’s still noon, she’s acting like a soldier right now.

“Ahh, hey. How’s the situation of the injured?”

“They are resting inside the tent.” As you have ordered, we have used the magic ball on those who were heavily injured. Only those who are lightly injured that could heal with natural recovery are left to themselves”

“Ahh, that’s good. What about the stock of the magic balls?”

“Our first platoon has a consumption rate of 10%. I believe that as a whole, we have used 30%”

“There shouldn’t be any problems 2-3 times huh”

I simulated inside my head.

“I got it. I also told you this before, but just use it anytime if you think it becomes dangerous”

The sickness of being cheap on using elixirs isn't good, so I say that every time we talk about the magic balls.

“Sir yes sir!”

“Especially you. You're my woman, don't die in a boring way”

“.....yes”

She couldn't act like a soldier in the end.

Nikki couldn't help but look down with flushed cheeks. I should take care of her kindly next time.

I separated ways with her, went deeper, and stood in front of a small tent.

“Are you here?”

When I said that, the tent opened.

Nana opened the tent from inside.

“Can I go in?”

“Ha!”

I passed by Nana who stood on the side, and entered.

I looked at Nana deeply.

She is not wearing armor.

A slim and smooth body, black hair that flows like a waterfall.

The dignified air that she has is just as usual, but in this appearance of hers without armor, her feminine beauty is emphasized.

“What were you doing”

“I am taking a break at the moment”

“I see. Were you alright? You jumped into the place where the enemies concentrated most. Do you have any injuries?”

“Please do not worry, Aruji. That is my job after all”

“I see”

“I am always thankful to Aruji”

“Un?”

“You trust me, you trust in my abilities and let me go to the most dangerous places, I am very grateful for that”

“That’s, good then”

Well, Nana should be good just like that.

Looking at her, I got a little itchy.

“Nana, take your sword and go out”

“.....? Ha!”

She had some doubts, but even so, Nana abided.

Seeing her holding her long sword, we went out of the tent.

I drew out Eleanor, and faced Nana.

“Kakeru-san? What are you doing?”

Io came.

She made an expression, thinking that it was strange seeing me and Nana facing each other with drawn swords.

“We’re just having a match”

“Eh? Why?”

“Because I felt like it”

“Eh～”

Io had a face that she couldn’t understand at all.

Well, that should be the case. After all, even I don’t know why I wanted to do this.

Sometimes when I’m talking to Nana, I would suddenly want to do it with her.

I would have unbearable feelings, but I would feel that I would want to exchange blows with swords first.

Nana and I faced each other.

“Come”

“Well then.....please excuse me!”

Nana attacked.

She launched herself fiercely, and triple attacked from a low position.

I received it using Eleanor. It had six sword sounds.

My hand got a little numb.

“Nice move”

“Gratitude”

Drawing a beautiful circle, this time she consecutive attacked from above.

She slashed with untraceable movements, and her sword light covered my upper body like a net.

From how I saw it, there was 9 vertical slashes, and 9 horizontal ones.

“Hmph!”

I braced myself and slashed back with the same numbers.

Thirty six sword slashes echoed like an explosion.

“It’s my turn now, try receiving it”

I released an aura, and slashed down from above.

Nana received it— or not, she attacked head on.

She’s not a defending woman, but an attacking one.

Towards my one attack, she returned five lightning fast slashes head on.

Number of tricks and power, it was five consecutive attacks that had broke through the limits of both.

Adding the special ability of adding 100% attack to that, she completely received my attack, and pushed me back head on.

I started to get worked up.

That’s right, it’s this.

Nana has this.

High basic abilities and adaptability, and the decision-making ability that would be effective at staking everything in the most important place.

Arriving at this world, the strongest human that I thought is Nana.

And that Nana is also evolving.

That’s why, it’s so fun, it’s so fun doing it with her.

It’s because she has this that I want Nana more and more.

The sounds of the swords continuously echoed.

“Go!”

“Haaaaaa!!”

Both of us released our strength, and met our swords.

*Dogo—n*, a huge explosive sound echoed.

Using the recoil very skillfully, Nana fell back just like a bird.

I released my strength, completely receiving Nana's attack, and didn't move a step from my place.

Our match ended.

When I noticed it, all of the slave soldiers had left their tents, and was clamoring about. I had a glimpse of that for an instant, but I immediately removed them from my sight. No, they disappeared.

My eyes could only see Nana. My thing that is invigorating inside my heart because of the match made it that I could only see Nana.

I stomped, walking towards her, put my arms behind her knees and back and carried her.

"Let's go"

"Ha!"

Nana embraced me back.

Strongly. She hugged me strongly that it's painful.

Her breathing is rough, her skin is flushing, and I could smell her sweat.

All of that brought me excitement.

I took Nana into the tent, and pushed her down on top of the bed.

When I went outside after seeing Nana sleep after it ended, I encountered Io's group who came back from somewhere.

Agnes and Julia was avoiding me and wouldn't approach, and only Io came near me.

"Hello, Kakeru-san"

"Ahh"

"Really, you really surprised us earlier. You became like that so suddenly"

“Suddenly? Didn’t I tell you before we started?”

“I’m not talking about that you know. Didn’t the two of you became serious half-way. It was so scary you know? The two of you were slashing towards each other while laughing”

“Laughing?”

Io clearly nodded.

“Un. You were like “Fuhahahaha”. Or, “Fufufu”. The two of you were laughing out loud, it was so, so scary”

“We laughed out, huh”

I wasn’t aware at all.

“Look, because of that, the girls are afraid”

She said, and pointed to Agnes and Julia.

Just like she had said, they were terrified. Before, the two of them just hates me, but now fear was added to that.

I see, that’s the reason why they aren’t coming so frequently now.

“But, but, it’s the first time I saw Kakeru-san fight so seriously. You aren’t usually fighting that serious huh”

“There’s no need after all. ....the last time was with the Red Dragon, I think? The time when I fought so seriously”

“A-re? What about Sandros?”

“Didn’t I insta-kill that? I see, Nana had exceeded Sandros huh”

I remembered the match with Nana, and compared them.

She’s completely over that.

[Umu, she exceeds him]

Eleanor who is the previous owner of Sandros guaranteed.

“Nana-san’s amazing〜”

“Yeah, she’s amazing. Isn’t she already the strongest human? I think”

“Ne〜, ne〜. Then, how amazing is Kakeru-san? You’re so much better than Nana-san right”

“Let me think.....”

I compared us.

“Around ten times, I guess”

[Umu, that’s a good comparison]

I gained Eleanor’s guarantee again.

“Ten times of that huh〜, so amazing〜”

Io was honestly impressed.

CHAPTER 89

SENPAI'S TEACHINGS

---

In a mansion in the town of Gihon.

Visiting there, I was passed to a drawing room.

After waiting for a while, Fiona and Marie came.

““Kakeru-san!”“

The two ran to me at once. I stood up welcoming them.

“Thank goodness, Kakeru-san came”

Fiona said with a face that showed she was relieved from the bottom of her heart.

“What happened”

“W-We don't know what to do. It's the first time we had such a huge mansion, so.....and, the dress that was prepared is too luxurious”

“The people, the servants tries to take care of us so much, and.....”

Marie said. She looked troubled like her big sister, but she was relieved after seeing me.

“Leaving aside the servants, too bad with the clothes”

The two were wearing the same kind of clothes up to now.

“The clothes that would be prepared for princesses, even in this town, it would've looked good”

“That is true. That’s why I’m more scared to wear it. Just thinking of how much it costs, how many days of profits in the store would it take, and what should I do if it got dirty. I couldn’t help but think like that. The profit for the whole month might not be enough to fix it if it got torn”(Marie)

“I see”

“The food too, when they asked us what we would like to eat, when I answered I don’t know, they made tens of dishes so I was surprised”(Fiona)

“Well, that’s the royalty’s food. There are many dishes, and you only need to get a little of the food you like”

“What’s that! Does all the royalties eat food like that?”(Fiona)

“That is.....scary”(Marie)

“Well, just calm down. You should just get used to it, or just order them to change it how you like it. Queens can do all that they want you know? You can say something like “I want to be frugal so follow me!”

“Ehhhhh, can we also do that”(Marie)

“You’re the ruler after all. You can also order something like “All citizens must live with a lifestyle of 1 silver coin for a month!”“

“One silver coin huh.....it might be somehow possible”(Fiona)

“No, no, it won’t”

“Eh~, it will. Right~, Marie”(Fiona)

“Un, if we do our best”(Marie)

“Well, yeah, if you do it desperately”

I talked to the sisters.

Fiona, the poster girl of the diner was sociable, and although she was confused at first, I felt like her tensions got loose after talking to me for a while.

On the other hand, Marie would participate in our conversation, but her face wouldn’t get well.

“What is it Marie, do you feel bad?”

“U~un, it’s nothing”

“You don’t have a face that says it’s nothing. If you have some worries, just say it to me, I’ll do something about it”

“It will trouble Kakeru-san——”

“Tell me”

I said it strongly.

I would be troubled instead if she holds back here.

When I stared at her for a while, Marie finally prepared herself, and started to speak timidly.

“The ruler’s world.....it’s scary”

“You can do all that you want you know. If you really want to, you can also be a commoner-like Queen”

“But, earlier.....”

“Earlier?”

I replied while tilting my head.

Marie looked down and wouldn’t answer.

I looked at Fiona on the side. The big sister was making a wry smile.

“A Ojii-san-like person came, and told us a lot of things like, conduct ourselves as royalty”

“Ahh, the obligation or something like that”

Fiona nodded.

I see, those things had already started huh.

I had expected that, but I thought that it would be later on.

I thought that it would only be when we started winning, and progress of the war advanced that they would get cocky——but it happened unexpectedly so fast.

“That’s why, we thought that maybe we need to follow the rules of this kingdom, become more like a Queen”

“Hmm. Yosh, let’s go to Calamba right now”

““Eh?””

The sisters’ voices overlapped.

Their worries and wry smile disappeared, and had a face asking what the heck was I saying.

I touched those two’s shoulder, and warped.

The lottery’s item, the Warp Feather. With that, I could go to anywhere in an instant as long as I’ve visited that place once.

The place where I warped to is the capital of Calamba, Meteora, in the queen’s room in the palace.

And, Rica was there.

“Rica”

“Kakeru!”

Rica stood up, and runs to me, but seeing the two girls that I brought, she stopped.

If the two weren’t around, she probably didn’t stopped and hugged me.

“Those two are?”

“Fiona and Marie, they’re sisters. This is Rica Calamba. Calamba Kingdom’s Queen”

I did a simple introduction.

“Eh, eh, ehrrrrrrh??”

“Calamba’s Queen-sama? And this place is?”

Fiona and Marie were so surprised.

On the other hand, Rica is calm.

“Is it their first time to warp with Kakeru? Those two girls”

“.....come to think of it, that might be so”

Well, leaving that on the side.

I said to Rica.

“The thing that I told you before, about Comotoria”

“Ahh, that huh. Then, the two of them has the blood of the royal family”

“That’s right. And so, soon as we won a battle, some grandpa already started to get cocky, saying things like obligations or traditions”

“Ahh～”

Rica smiled pleasantly.

Hearing what I said, she immediately understood.

The reason that I brought the two here, and what I want from her.

Rica was once restrained, but right now, she’s freely doing what she want.

She understood my message behind the lines, that I want her to give the two some advice as a senpai.

“Can I leave them, here for a while?”

“Un, leave it to me. Instead, can I ask you something?”

“What, just say it I will do it”

“The harem I prepared for Kakeru, Kakeru won’t come at all so everyone’s feeling lonely. Can you love them while we are talking?”

I got dumbfounded for an instant.

It’s not like I’m not coming here a lot. Rather, I visit frequently.

The women in the harem that Rica made for me, I'm also taking care of them a lot. Even so, Rica said that. What does she mean?

I had doubts, but I immediately understood.

Fiona and Marie got surprised, and was staring at Rica.

Rica didn't say that for me, but for Fiona and Marie.

It's a message saying that a Queen can do all that she wants, even making a harem for his man is very easy.

As I've thought, Rica is very intelligent, she is far more intelligent even compared when we just met.

The message behind my words, she replied with a message that is just the same.

"Ahh, I'll do that"

I should also take care of Rica later. Thinking of that, I left my seat.

Night, in the drawing room in a mansion in Gihon.

I warped, went back with Fiona and Marie.

"Thank you so much, Kakeru-san"

Fiona said her thanks.

"You talked for a long time, what did you talk about?"

"Uhhh.....the first half, most of it was how she liked Kakeru-san and how amazing Kakeru-san"

"70% of it's like that, Onee-chan"

"Un, that might be so"

"Oi, oi"

Although I was saying that, I didn't think the same.

Rica is an intelligent woman, she understands what I want, and she's a woman who could read what I wish behind the words that I say.

There's no way that Rica would spend some time just to talk about that.

[She probably wanted to relieve them of their tension]

Eleanor said, I also think so.

"By the way, what did she said?"

"Uhhh.....she said that she was being watched everywhere she goes at first, but that disappeared thanks to Kakeru-san"

"About that time, huh"

I nodded, and became sure.

Rica who had started to talk about that isn't just talking about how amazing I am.

"Un, Rica at that time was terrible. She had eyes like this"

I made an expressionless face, and did my best to imitate eyes of those who had just got raped.

"She was like, "there's no meaning of doing anything, so I won't do anything""

When I said that, the sisters nodded.

"She told us too. And, she tried to be brave, but in the end, it was useless"

"But, thanks to Kakeru-san being at her side, you became her strength and everything went well"

“She said that she was very thankful of Kakeru-san. Also, the harem is still small right now, but she said that she would gather more and more girls that is befitting Kakeru-san, increasing them as much as possible”

“Un. Some minister is telling her to stop in a roundabout way, but she said that she’s ignoring them”

“I see”

Hearing what the sisters said, I became sure that Rica had inserted the parts that they needed in their conversation.

And just like that, I listened to the two.

When we were enjoying like that, the door opened.

An old man appeared.

The sisters’ expression became stiff.

“You have returned, Fiona-sama, Marie-sama. Where did you go?”

“They were with me”

I looked at the man while sitting.

“Baron Yuuki.....this is not good, even if it is the Baron Your Excellency, we will get troubled if you take the two graces without telling us. In the first place——”

“We asked him”

Marie interrupted the man’s words.

I looked at her. Although she had spoken with a clear voice, she made a fist, trying to stop her trembling.

It felt like she refuted using all of her courage.

The man got surprised, Marie immediately followed and said.

“Is it wrong for us to ask the Baron take us somewhere?”

“I-I am not saying that. I was just saying, that without permission——”

“Do we need to ask anyone’s permission?”

This time, Fiona opened her mouth.

Looking at Marie, she made a small guts pose gesture following her little sister, and said.

“Do we need to tell anyone to do something? Are you saying, we need your permission”

“Permission——no, I-I”

“Then, what?”

“Uhm.....the two graces are very important, if there’s a possibility of danger, it is——”

“Where would be a safer place other than Kakeru-san’s side?”

“There’s none, right”

The sisters attacked tagging each other.

“Good, good”, I thought.

If one would really like to point it out, it was a kind of logic that is full of holes.

But, that is also good, no, that is good.

What I wanted them to do is to say things arrogantly like a Queen does.

That’s why logic that is full of wholes is very good.

“Meaning, we need to become prisoners huh? A prisoner that is always watched by you”

“N-No, that is.....”

The man bites his tongue.

It looks like he couldn’t refute to the sisters’ sharp (derivative) attacks at all.

Seeing up to this, I think that there’s no more problem.

In the end, the man could not say anything back, and could only leave the room with his tails between his legs.

After the door closed, I praised Fiona and Marie.

“Amazing, the two of you”

“Uhhh, that right now, it wasn’t from us”(Marie)

“Un?”

“Rica-sama told us, she told us that there would be something like this after we returned, and that it would be all right as long as we say that. I was so scared if it really would work, but it did”(Marie)

“Ahh~, I see, I see”

Un, if so, I’m very convinced.

Rica knows about those kinds of things the most.

It’s because it’s Rica who was treated like a caged bird, she was able to predict it, and gave them advice.

While thinking of how amazing Rica was, I feel a little sorry.

I thought, it would’ve been for the best if it was made up by the two.

“And then.....Kakeru-san”

Marie looked at me while fidgeting.

“What is it”

“Uhhh.....can we ask you once again”

Fiona also started fidgeting.

“What, just tell me”

I nodded.

But, the sisters wouldn't speak at all.

They fidgeted, and wouldn't speak.

After a while, the two of them looked at each other, and with a "One-two".

"Please make us Queens. Make the two of us Queens"

They said.

"The two of you?"

"Yes, the two of us together" (Fiona)

"Is it bad.....to have two queens in a country" (Marie)

The two of them said, and stared straight at me.

That is——arrogant and selfish.

It was that selfishness that I expected.

I became happy.

"Alright"

I grinned, and said.

"I'll make you two queens together"

I declared.
